4 R.C.A.F. Men Killed in Crash

OTTAWA (CP)—National Defence headquarters announced this afternoon the deaths of four members of the Royal Canadian Air Force in a crash at Trenton at 11.45 a.m., E.S.T.

Victims of the crash were: Pilot Officers G. T. Maher, N. J. Lee, L. A. Clements and Leading Aircraftsman L. S. Stempl.

According to the Defence Department, the machine left the air station at 10.10 a.m. for air firing practice on the bombing and gunnery range and was approaching the air station on return from the range when the crash occurred.

A dispatch from Belleville said the bomber was reported to have been traveling 150 miles an hour when it went into a spin and crashed in a section of bush near the C.P.R. tracks. Airport firefighters rushed to the scene, but there was no fire.

FROM SASKATOON

SASKATOON (CP)—Lawrence Stempel, 22, one of the four Royal Canadian Air Force fliers killed in the crash at Trenton, Ont., today, was a Saskatoon airman.

His father, Wilfred Stempel, Saskatoon chartered accountant and president of the Saskatoon Flying Club, received confirmation that the airman, an only son, had been killed in the accident.

Known a few years ago as the youngest licensed air engineer in Canada, Stempel is survived by his parents and two sisters.

'GIGANTIC'

WASHINGTON (CP) — S. B. Redercker, United States consul at Frankfort-on-Main, advised the commerce department today that Germany is building a "gigantic" synthetic gasoline manufacturing plant at Stettin in northeast Germany, with an annual capacity of 350,000 metric tons of gasoline. The plant will take two years to complete.

NO LIMIT!

LONDON (AP) — Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told the House of Commons today Britain's expenditures on war and other services now are at the rate of about £2,400,000,000 ($9,600,000,000) annually.

This would constitute an increase of 66⅔ per cent over peacetime expenditures, he said.

"Before we are finished with the war it may mean fearful sacrifices, some of which we have hardly begun to dream are possible," he added.

Dies, Almost Pauper

CHICAGO (AP) — Judge Charles Woodward today sentenced Jack Russell, 39-year-old Oklahoma robber, to die in the electric chair January 5 for the murder of William Scott Hamilton, Arkansas City, Kas., salesman, whose almost nude body shot once in the head, was found in a ditch near Ringwood, Ill., July 14.

AND 8 COLLECT!

BOWIE, Md. (AP) — Eight near-frantic bettors collected $1,736.30 each in the daily double payoff today, highest in the 65-day Maryland fall racing season.

The winning combination was Shaileen, which paid $37.40 on the nose in the first, and Rib Roast, which paid $43.80.

AIR PROGRAM

SYDNEY (CP-Cable)—Australia's part in the Empire air defence plan has been changed momentously by the negotiations at Ottawa.

Australia will now provide 26,500 pilots, gunners and observers, and 50,000 men for ground staff.

It is presumed here that the Canadian effort will be proportionately greater.

Only 6,000 Australians will go to Canada. The remainder will receive their whole training here. Australia will import latest type bombers and fighters from the United States and Britain.

GIRLS CONVICTED

REGINA (CP)—Two Regina high school girls were convicted in police court here today on charges of distributing literature likely to cause disaffection to His Majesty or prejudice recruiting. The charges were the outcome of distribution of pamphlets in Regina November 10.

WIDER POWERS

PARIS (AP) — The cabinet, meeting with President Lebrun today, unanimously approved a project believed to be a request for extension of decree powers. Premier Daladier will submit the matter to parliament at its first wartime session tomorrow.

The cabinet has been ruling by decree powers which expire tomorrow.

STRIKE RENEWED

REGINA (CP) — The Lignite Coal Mine at Estevan, which resumed operations with a skeleton crew of 15 miners yesterday, was shut down again today after about 100 picketers arrived at the mine where 500 workers demanded union recognition.

One miner was assaulted by two unidentified picketers and sustained head injuries.

SCORN FLAG

EDMONTON (CP) — Report that children attending Edmonton public schools have refused to salute the Union Jack and recite the pledge to the flag on "religious grounds" was studied today by trustees.

G. A. McKee, superintendent of schools, told a board meeting the pupils refused on instructions from parents.

Declaring a "delicate situation" arises and the teacher is powerless when a pupil refused to salute the flag, the report quoted a test case in which a United States court found a school child had the right to refuse to salute the flag on religious grounds.

Mr. McKee said he believed Canadian courts would give a similar decision.

CONVICTED

MONTREAL (CP) — Arthur Titley, 27, member of the Witnesses of Jehovah sect, was convicted today in Court of King's Bench on a charge of seditious conspiracy to distribute pamphlets with intent to create animosity.

Mr. Justice Wilfrid Lazure ordered the prisoner to appear December 20 for sentencing and then released him on $200 bail pending appeal proceedings which R. L. Calder, K.C., defence counsel, said he had been instructed to institute.

Trial of 13 other members of the sect was delayed to the next assizes term, opening February 1.

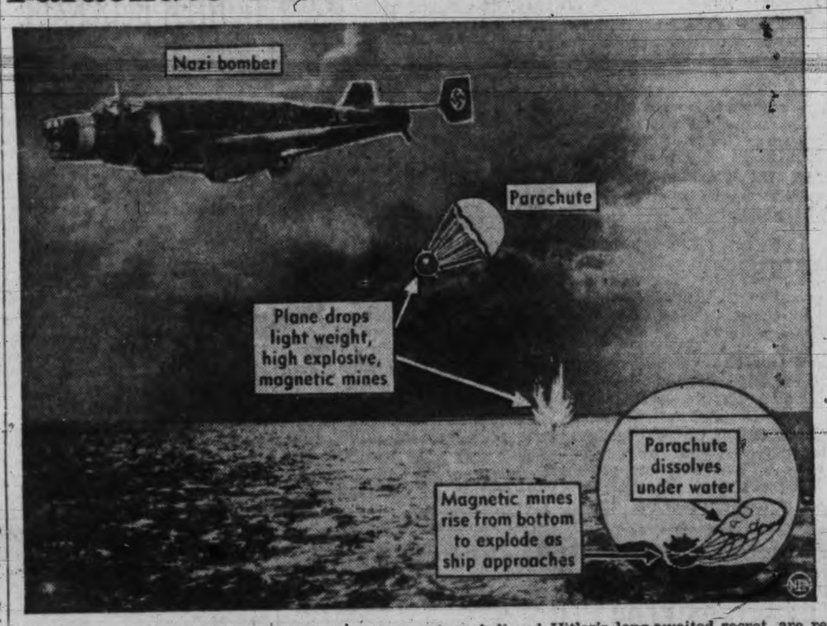
Wings for the Lion—

TOWED ACROSS U.S.-CANADIAN BORDER—Single-motored pursuit planes swept down to a landing in a field outside the sleepy little town of Sweetgrass, Mont., on the Canadian border. They taxied to within three feet of the international line, where the pilots cut the motors and climbed out. Then Canadian airmen took formal title of the planes, tow ropes were attached, and they were ceremoniously hauled across the boundary as shown here. They were the first contingent of hundreds of warplanes built for the Allies which will be flown to the Canadian line, where they must, in accordance with a U.S. law, be "pushed or pulled" across. Flight of armed planes into a belligerent country would be an "armed expedition," officials have decided.

Coming—

MOTORCYCLE PATHFINDERS—Slim Williams, left above, and his partner John Logan, who are driving from Fairbanks, Alaska, to Washington, D.C., spent last night in Yale, B.C., and are expected in Vancouver today. They will go to Seattle and then come to Victoria on Saturday to meet Premier Pattullo and discuss with him their experiences in blazing the trail, which may become the Alaska Highway. This picture was taken when the riders were leaving Smithers, B.C., after having been the object for some days of a search by air. They hooked their motorcycles together and their supplies are carried on the platform between.

Parachute Mine



HITLER'S DEADLY WAR WEAPON—Parachute mines, believed Hitler's long-awaited secret, are reported responsible for many of ship sinkings off England's east coast. Photo-diagram shows how Nazi planes sow these magnetic, high explosive mines. Britain has already organized sea patrols and wooden sweepers to thwart their action.

'RIDICULOUS PERFORMANCE'

NEW YORK (CP) — In an editorial, "Neutrality and Nonsense," the Daily News refers to the "ridiculous performance" of delivering airplanes from United States to Canada by rolling them across the border. It adds:

"We don't suppose it would suffice to have a Canadian official aboard each of these planes and have him say as the plane flew across the border: 'I now take title to this plane in the name of His Majesty George VI.' But that might do at that, the main requisite seeming to be some impressive mumbo-jumbo."

The U.S. Neutrality Act forbids flying of belligerent-owned planes across the border, but contains no provision against rolling craft across after title has passed from the manufacturers.

TOSS TOW ROPES OVER

OTTAWA (CP) — Canadian air men standing on the international boundary, near Coutts, Alta., toss a tow rope over the border and drag the new planes over, it was revealed today by the Defence Department. With their engines still warm from their California factories, the planes are immediately started and with Canadian crews move eastward to Trenton and Camp Borden training bases.

More Half Days For Store Clerks

Another half dozen or so Wednesday half holidays for retail store clerks are guaranteed by a bill put before the Legislature last night by Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor.

The present practice, when there is a full statutory holiday during a week, is to call off the usual Wednesday half-day and stores remain open. Under the new bill the employees will get their half-day regardless of there being another holiday during the week. Only in cases where there are two full holidays will they have to work.

To the shopping public this means that stores will be closed on Wednesday afternoon when there is another holiday in the week.

French Artillery Busy

PARIS (CP-Havas)—Tonight's French communique reported: "No incident of importance on the front. Harassing fire by our artillery. A few patrol encounters."

Christmas Carols Through the Ages

HOW BRIGHTLY BEAMS THE MORNING STAR

"How brightly beams the morning star!
What sudden radiance from afar
Doth glad us with its shining. . . ."

This hymn first appeared in Germany in 1599, a popular selection with the chime players in many cities. Bach's later harmonization of the music adds the touch that makes the piece enduring.

Russia Breaks With Finland; Armies Stand by

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Russia broke off diplomatic relations with Finland today (Thursday).

MOLOTOFF SPEAKS

MOSCOW (CP-Havas) — "The Soviet government has decided to withdraw its political and economic representatives from Helsingfors and has ordered its troops to stand ready for any eventuality," Premier-Foreign Commissar Molotoff said over the radio tonight.

Shortly before Molotoff went on the air, an announcer speaking from the Moscow station said:

"Great is the desire of the Soviet troops posted on the Finnish border to respond to the provocation of the Finnish bandits by a crushing attack.

"All the soldiers, workers and intellectuals of Russian Karelia (bordering on Finland) are convinced the glorious red army will win a glorious victory."

The announcer said it was believed here that Finland's workers and soldiers would welcome and unite with the red troops.

"The Soviet government's wise policy has made our army absolutely invincible," he said.

Molotoff said:

"The Finnish government's hostile policy toward the U.S.S.R. obliges us to take immediate measures to assure the external security of the state.

"Negotiations conducted since a month ago have brought no results. Grave provocations have been committed on the border by Finland," he continued, adding Russia's representatives were being withdrawn from Helsingfors.

LENINGRAD "THREATENED"

"Our proposals were met with an arrogant refusal to negotiate," he said. "The Finnish government intends to keep Leningrad under the threat of its army. It does not respect the nonaggression treaty between the two countries. That is what led us to consider the agreement now inoperative.

"We consider Finland an independent and sovereign state. The U.S.S.R. is willing to lend aid to the Finnish people and to guarantee its freedom.

"Our government's only aim is to assure the security of the U.S.S.R. and Leningrad. This aim cannot depend on the good will of this or that Finnish government.

"We are convinced, however, that a solution of this problem in appropriate conditions can inaugurate a new era in the good relations between the Soviet Union and Finland."

STUNNING BLOW

HELSINGFORS (AP) — The news of Soviet Russia's action in breaking off diplomatic relations with Finland fell like a thunderclap tonight on Helsingfors.

Although Finns had been preparing for the worst and awaiting developments with grim calm, Moscow's precipitate action caught the public and officials alike by surprise.

The news spread through Helsingfors at midnight like wildfire.

Grim-faced people gathered in groups and discussed the latest turn in the extremely grave situation.

The Foreign Office promised a statement soon.

LEADERS CONFER

Meanwhile, government officials were summoned hurriedly to a midnight conference.

One official exclaimed: "Hull's offer came too late."

The Finns were without official information of the fateful Russian action for hours after it was announced in a radio broadcast by Russian Premier-Foreign Commissar Vyacheslaff Molotoff.

Prior to the move in Moscow the Finnish government had sent a carefully worded and deliberate reply to the Soviet note of yesterday denouncing the 1932 Russian-Finnish nonaggression pact.

U.S. WOULD ACT

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Cordell Hull made known today the United States government stands ready to extend its good offices for a settlement of the Russian-Finnish dispute.

In a statement he asserted:

"This government is following with serious concern the intensification of the Finnish-Soviet dispute.

"It would view with extreme regret any extension of the present area of war and the consequent further deterioration of international relations.

"Without in any way becoming involved in the merits of the dispute, and limiting its interests to the solution of the dispute by peaceful processes only, this government would, if agreeable to both parties, gladly extend its good offices."

The offer was not communicated to the Russian and Finnish governments, but was made known as an outline of United States policy.

Secretary Hull said he was making periodic telephone reports to President Roosevelt on the Russian-Finnish developments.

Officials explained that an offer of "good services" was very broad, and amounted only to an expression of willingness to aid in bringing about a peaceful solution.

They said the offer was not one of mediation of the dispute.

Stalin Blames Allies for War

MOSCOW (AP)—Joseph Stalin tonight claimed the Allies were responsible for the present war.

"The ruling circles of England and France," he said, "have rudely declined both Germany's peace proposals and the attempts of the Soviet Union to attain the earliest termination of the war."

In a statement published in Pravda in denial of a French news agency report, the Soviet leader asserted "such are the facts" concerning responsibility for the conflict:

"Firstly, it was not Germany who attacked France and England, but France and England who attacked Germany, thus assuming responsibility for the present war;

"Secondly, after the outbreak of hostilities Germany addressed France and England with peace proposals while the Soviet Union openly supported Germany's peace proposals because it believes and continues to believe that the earliest termination of the war would fundamentally alleviate the position of all countries and nations;

Pravda, Communist Party organ, said the French agency had charged that Stalin in a speech last August 19 had expounded the idea "war should last as long as possible."

"I am certainly not in a position to know in what particular cafe chantant (cabaret) this lie was fabricated," was Stalin's comment.

War's Sideshow

EVEN JUDGES MAKE GOOD SOLDIERS—Two Canadian judges are on military service, recalling the part played in the last war by judges and other legal lights. One of them is Toronto's Lieut.-Col. Ian Macdonell (left), officer commanding the Queen's York Rangers and a county court judge. Brig. Alex. Ross (centre), distinguished officer in the last war and former president of the Canadian Legion, is a district court judge in Saskatchewan. Mr. Justice J. A. Hope (right), is a brigadier in the nonpermanent active militia. He was commander of the 8th Infantry Brigade when the war broke out.

AVOID EXCHANGE

Nanaimo city plans to wipe out its dispute with the Workmen's Compensation Board over paying the U.S. premium on its bond coupons by buying back the whole bond issue.

On an issue of $145,000 5 per cent bonds payable at the holders' option either in Canada or the United States the compensation board has been attempting to collect in the United States and get the 10 per cent premium on the exchange rate. Nanaimo council charged that this was war profiteering.

Under a deal which is authorized by a bill now before the Legislature, Nanaimo is given power to put out a new issue of $153,000 in 4½ per cent bonds, from which it will buy back the bonds held by the compensation board. The new bonds will be payable only in Canadian funds.

'Warm' Calgary

CALGARY (CP)—For the first time in 26 years the average temperature for Calgary in November has been above 35 degrees above zero. This year the average for the month is 39 degrees.

Seeks Equality For Imperials

Capt. Macgregor Macintosh, Conservative, the Islands, is seeking to ensure that men who have gone from Canada to enlist directly in the British forces will get the same pension and after-war treatment as those who are serving in the Canadian forces.

He gave notice of motion in the Legislature today urging the government to take the matter up with Ottawa. He pointed out that after the last war there was a great deal of unfairness in this regard which led to dissatisfaction among many British Columbians who served overseas with the Imperial forces.

Turks Sight Sub

ISTANBUL (AP) — Turkish maritime authorities reported sighting a submarine of unknown nationality today at the southwestern entrance to the Dardanelles, near Tenedos Island in the Aegean Sea. They declined to speculate on its identity or destination.

HOUSE TO CLOSE

The third session of British Columbia's 19th Legislature will prorogue tomorrow, it was indicated as the House prepared for the final drive in afternoon and evening sittings today.

With the exception of a few government bills requiring third reading, all the legislation has been disposed of and the main business to be dealt with are 19 resolutions advanced by private members.

It is expected the order paper will be cleared tonight and the House will then assemble either tomorrow morning or afternoon to receive His Honor, Lieutenant-Governor E. W. Hamber, for the formal assent to bills.

The session has been the shortest in years, just two days more than four weeks.

400 R.A.F. Casualties

LONDON (CP)—An Air Ministry casualty list just issued brought to 400 the number of Royal Air Force men lost since the war began. Sixty have been killed in action with the enemy; 81 are missing, 15 are prisoners, and 244 either were killed or died while on active service.

Slight Earthquake Close to Seattle

SEATTLE (AP) — The Great Northern Railroad Company's dispatcher said stations along the company's route from Scenic in the Cascades to Wenatchee in eastern Washington reported a slight earthquake shock at 1.15 a.m. today.

The sheriff's office at Wenatchee said the shock was slight. No damage was reported. The shock was recorded on the University of Washington seismograph, Assistant Prof. Howard Coombs said, but was a "very small" one. He estimated its distance at about 50 miles from here.

No shocks were recorded on the seismograph of the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory on Little Saanich Mountain.

Germans Reported Building Eastwall

LONDON (CP)—A report circulating in London says Germany has become alarmed at the weakness of her frontier with Russia in conquered Poland and has begun to construct fortifications.

The new German defences are reported to include not only trenches but steel-reinforced concrete fortifications of the kind used in the Siegfried Line.

Other sources reported recently the Russians were heavily fortifying their side of the line.

R.A.F. SHOOTS DOWN GERMAN RAIDER

LONDON (CP) — A German raider was brought down off the northeast coast of Britain today when British fighters engaged it.

Northumberland coast dwellers lined the shore and watched the air battle. After the German craft had fallen into the sea a lifeboat put out, but was unable to find a trace of the plane's occupants.

An air ministry communique disclosed the victim was a German Heinkel, and stated it "dived vertically into the clouds towards the sea." Another authoritative account of the engagement stated the Heinkel dived into the sea "with clouds of smoke trailing behind and both guns silenced."

The Nazi machine was the 23rd enemy plane brought down in Britain or off her coasts since the German raid on the Firth of Forth October 26.

Aerial activity also was reported today in three Scottish areas. Planes were seen over the Firth of Forth, an air engagement was reported over a southwest Scottish town, and a plane seen over another town was identified as German.

No air raid alarms were sounded.

GUNS FIRED

Fighting planes took to the air again today as anti-aircraft batteries along the Thames estuary began firing, but it was learned later the shooting was not due to a German raid and no alarm was sounded.

The Air Ministry announced all its planes had returned safely after yesterday's machine-gunning of three mine-laying German seaplanes at Borkum, island base off the northwestern coast of Germany.

The ministry also denied German charges that Royal Air Force planes had crossed the Netherlands Monday night after a reconnaissance flight over northern Germany and that one British plane probably was lost in the North Sea.

"The R.A.F. planes met adverse weather, thick clouds, electric storms and ice conditions," the statement said. "Our aircraft encountered resistance from anti-aircraft defences. Despite these conditions and in the face of strong enemy opposition, the operation was successfully concluded."

FRENCH ALARM

PARIS (CP-Havas) — A five-minute air raid alarm was sounded in western France today. The alarm, given at 11.33 a.m., was ended without incident at 11.38 a.m., by an all-clear signal.

13 KILLED AS SHIP HITS NAZI MINE

LONDON (CP)—The 1,023-ton British steamship Rubislaw sank off the southeast coast of Britain yesterday within two minutes after striking a mine, it was announced today. Thirteen members of the crew were killed.

Four injured survivors were rescued by a minesweeper.

The Admiralty said a German statement yesterday that a U-boat had sunk a British cruiser of the London class off the Shetland Islands was "devoid of truth." Naval circles said the German report may have been intended to "cheer up the people" or elicit information on the position of British warships.

DEAFENED PEOPLE Report to Druggists

"I was troubled for 15 years," writes Martin Olson, "Could not hear a train standing next to it. Then I bought AURINE EAR BALSAM at Longmore's Drug Store, Swift Current, Sask. BRITISH VOICE FINN SYMPATHY

LONDON (CP) — Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, today gave expression to Britain's sympathy for Finland as a crisis approached in that country's quarrel with Russia.

Speaking at a luncheon, Sir John noted the presence of the Finnish minister to Great Britain, G. A. Gripenberg, "at this dread hour in the history of his country."

A joint toast was drunk to the Finnish minister and the Polish ambassador, Count Edward Raczynski.

Diplomatic circles said Russia, in denouncing her nonaggression pact with Finland yesterday, apparently had ignored a provision of the treaty calling for six months' notice of such denunciation.

British sources also asserted the treaty provided for conciliation procedure. There also was a protocol, they said, providing that denunciation of the agreement would not limit the signatories' undertakings under the Kellogg-Briand Pact for renunciation of war.

BANTING HEADS WAR RESEARCH

TORONTO (CP)—Sir Frederick Banting, who arrived in England Monday, will do his war work in Canada, supervising medical research, it was officially stated at the University of Toronto today.

A report from London today said Sir Frederick, co-discoverer of insulin, was believed planning to take up an important medical appointment in connection with the war effort in England.

University officials here said today that Sir Frederick's present visit to London will be a brief one. In London Sir Frederick declined to discuss his plans.

It was announced from Ottawa a few days ago that the Banting Laboratories here, under direction of Sir Frederick, are concentrating on the production of anti-gas material, especially problems concerning phosgene, and also scientific work in connection with aircraft and medical problems concerning air warfare.

BRITISH PREPARE TIGHTER BLOCKADE

LONDON (CP)—Cryptic wireless instructions from the Admiralty today put British warships on the alert for the start Monday of the new phase of the Allied blockade—the seizure of German exports.

The mining of British waters, with numerous recent Allied and neutral shipping losses resulting, prompted the decision to seize German exports as well as imports.

In conjunction with France, the Royal Navy was instructed to remove from any ship cargoes of German origin or ownership. Heretofore, the blockade has been aimed only at goods destined for Germany.

The starting date of the export ban was set for Monday to permit neutral readjustments. It was understood that goods bought in Germany before November 27 would be exempt, even though not yet at sea.

The Times of London said the blockade would be applied "with the greatest possible regard for the interests of neutrals—which in the long run are also British interests."

(Netherlands ships will continue to operate, government sources in Amsterdam said, despite the new restrictions and the sinking of seven Dutch ships by German mines or submarines. It was announced the Netherlands ships would be equipped with paravanes, devices on the bows to fend off mines.)

Tractor Crushes Man

YREKA, Calif. (AP) — Lyman Armstrong of Etna crawled under a stalled tractor to make adjustment and was crushed to death as the heavy machine sank into the sand.

Finland Replies To Soviet Move

HELSINGFORS (AP) — Finland tonight sent Soviet Russia a soberly considered reply to Russia's denunciation of the Soviet-Finnish nonaggression pact, which accompanied grave frontier tension between the two powers.

Officials declined to comment on the Finnish reply's nature or tone pending delivery to the Kremlin.

Government leaders conferred most of the day on the note.

Officials denied Finland had mobilized her full military strength. They declared on the contrary that many reservists recently released had not been called back to the colors.

However, there was no inclination to minimize the precarious situation on the Russo-Finnish frontier, where incidents or alleged incidents were multiplying. Border patrols at various points were ordered to move back to avoid the possibility of clashes with Russian troops.

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Russia's smouldering dispute with Finland was fanned today by reports of fresh border clashes in which the red army was said to have fired with machine guns on Finnish troops attempting to cross the frontier.

As a result of the reported clashes, in which Finnish artillery was accused of sending shells across the border, new Russian troops were said to have been dispatched to reinforce frontier garrisons already estimated by observers at almost 1,000,000 men.

Reports from Helsingfors indicated that Finland has approximately 400,000 men under arms—more than one-tenth of the nation's entire population.

At the same time, the Communist Party newspaper Pravda disclosed that new classes of naval reservists had been called up for training and service in the Baltic fleet, which has been conducting manoeuvres from bases recently obtained from Estonia and Latvia.

NO DOUBTS IN ITALY

LEGHORN, Italy (CP-Havas) —Il Telegrafo, newspaper published here by the family of Foreign Minister Galeazzo Ciano, in commenting today on the Russo-Finnish situation said that "if ever there was a time when the roles are clearly established, when the figure of the aggressor and that of the victim are unmistakably established, it is in the present instance."

FRENCH PATROLS IN GERMAN AREA

PARIS (AP)—A French scouting patrol, operating east of Bitche, was reported today to have advanced between two and three kilometres (between 1¼ and 2 miles) into Germany before it encountered enemy outposts.

The scouts were said by military sources to have brought back valuable information. Bitche lies about 25 miles west of Wissemburg, near the Lauterbourg angle of the western front.

The high command made no official report on the patrol action. This morning's communique said only: "Nothing important to report."

OTTAWA (CP)—Effective date of licensing of importers and exporters of coal and coke has been extended to December 15, it was announced today.

Recently the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, under chairmanship of H. B. McKinnon, ruled that, effective December 1, the entire Canadian coal and coke industry would be subject to government licensing.

The order applied to manufacturers, importers, exporters, producers, jobbers, wholesalers and retailers of coal and coke. The original effective date, December 1, still applies to all except importers and exporters, board officials said.

Chicago Livestock Show Will Set Records

CHICAGO (AP) — The International Livestock Exposition will open at 8 a.m., Saturday for eight days. More than 13,000 head of cattle, horses and swine will be groomed for the 40th annual exhibition.

The war and two years of bumper crops in the United States, Manager B. H. Heide said, have combined to make this year's show the greatest in the history of the exposition.

The Royal Winter Fair at Toronto and other important provincial shows are not being held in Canada this year because of the war. Consequently, Canadian livestockmen are sending a record number of entries—more than 500—to Chicago.

The number of entries total 13,322, in comparison with 11,621 last year.

Underground Naziism

OTTAWA (CP)—The National Socialism which has brought Germany to war is a world movement based on the principle of world domination, Dr. R. F. M. Weit Valentin, distinguished German historian, warned the Canadian Club here. "Western civilization, take care," he said. "National Socialism is well organized in many countries and seeks the destruction of your freedom, your principles and your individual liberties."

Aussies in Line By Next Spring

CANBERRA (CP-Reuters) — First contingent of Australian troops will leave for Europe at the beginning of the year, and will take up their positions at the front in the spring after further training overseas, Prime Minister Robert Menzies told the House of Representatives today.

The House rejected by a vote of 33 to 28 a labor motion opposing the sending of an expeditionary force to Europe.

Australia is co-operating with Great Britain, Canada and New Zealand in the project for training aviators, which eventually will give Allied aviation incontestable superiority over the Germans, the Prime Minister added.

Having received adequate assurance as to the capacity and availability of the Royal Navy, Mr. Menzies told the House, the Commonwealth "is therefore of the opinion that it is most desirable to send a special division abroad."

"This will, I hope," he went on, "afford a most eloquent answer to the broadcasts of German propaganda, which is hoping daily that the British Dominions are not as one with Britain. Once more the answer to that foolish hope will be made by Australian soldiers in Europe, by thousands of Australian airmen and by the Australian navy, which is co-operating fully with the British navy."

While protection of Australia itself was of primary importance and the first aim of Australian defence policy, the second aim was to make the best possible contribution toward the victory of the Empire and the Allied cause whenever that contribution might be needed, he said. It would be over-optimism, he added, to imagine that the minor nature of the present fighting would continue indefinitely.

Asked in the House of Commons in London today whether Australian troops being prepared for overseas service would be "well protected on the way," Prime Minister Chamberlain said, "You can trust the navy to look after that."

2 Saskatoon Candidates

SASKATOON (CP)—The by-election in the Saskatoon federal constituency on December 18 will be a two-way contest between Michael P. Hayes, Liberal candidate, and Rev. W. G. Brown, representative of the United Reform Movement. Approximately 500 supporters of the Conservative Party, who met here last night for the announced purpose of nominating a candidate, unanimously decided not to contest the by-election.

Browder's Yale Speech Brings Much Noise

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — Earl Browder, United States Communist leader who was barred from speaking at Harvard, Princeton and Dartmouth, gave his views on "America and the Present War" to a Yale University student audience yesterday, declaring "the only way to peace is to take power out of the hands of the capitalists."

He spoke in an atmosphere almost as noisy as New York's Union Square, time-honored forum for left-wing orators, and when he left the hall by a rear door about 300 boisterous students milled around his automobile with cries of "turn it over." One side of the car was lifted high in the air but no damage was done.

A crowd, estimated at 4,000, largely students, was unable to get into the hall. Cheers, shouts of "Viva Browder," "Down with everything," "Open the door" and, at one point, the explosion of a firecracker, punctuated the speech.

OPEN OTTAWA'S NEW POST OFFICE

OTTAWA—The capital's new $1,000,000 central post office was in full operation today. Prime Minister Mackenzie King yesterday opened the building with a golden key, bought the first stamp and posted the first letter, which was addressed to Rt. Hon. Sir William Mulock, Toronto, his oldest and closest friend.

Mr. Mulock, 95-year-old former Chief Justice of Ontario, was Postmaster-General from 1896 to 1905.

The post office replaces the old building which was torn down to make way for the National War Memorial.

Aberhart Supports Prosecution of War

CAMROSE, Alta. (CP) — Premier William Aberhart of Alberta told a large gathering of Camrose constituents that the Social Credit Party gives full support to the prosecution of the second Great War.

Mr. Aberhart, who is provincial Minister of Education, termed education a better safeguard for liberty than a standing army, and claimed he had been falsely accused of putting Social Credit propaganda and statements favorable to Naziism in Alberta school books.

Fund Nears Objective

VANCOUVER (CP) — Three hundred canvassers for Vancouver's war chest fund cheered last night when it was officially announced a total of $541,427 had been raised in their two-week drive. The figure represents 90 per cent of the original $600,000 quota and is the largest sum ever raised by community endeavor in Vancouver.

A total of 48,907 persons contributed to the fund this year, which was raised jointly for the Red Cross Society and the Vancouver Welfare Federation.

Jugoslavia to Pay On Debts to Reich

BELGRADE (AP) — Jugoslavia agreed today to ship goods to Germany as payment of interest on debts incurred before the first Great War by Serbia and Bosnia, which subsequently became part of the Jugoslav kingdom.

The agreement was reached after a 14-day discussion between the Jugoslav government and a German commission. There had been reports of German pressure.

The Jugoslav government had contended the debts were wiped out by the Versailles Treaty. Interest has been unpaid since 1914 on two loans totaling approximately $15,000,000 negotiated by Serbia in 1895 and 1909. The Germans agreed to cancel the interest up to 1924 on condition the Jugoslavs pay the remaining interest.

Jugoslavia also agreed to begin paying interest on Bosnian debts after a commission decided on their amount, tentatively estimated at $35,000,000.

Conviction Quashed

VANCOUVER (CP) — British Columbia Court of Appeal yesterday quashed the conviction of Harvey McKibbon, 26, Vancouver taxi driver sentenced by Judge C. J. Lennox to one month's imprisonment on a charge of attempting to obstruct the course of justice by offering to accept $300 for not appearing as a witness at a county court trial.

McKibbon was a crown witness at the trial here several months ago of Police Constables Eldon Pinkerton and Hugh Hamilton, acquitted on charges of having accepted two bottles of rum from the taxi driver not to press a traffic charge against him.

Canal Needs Defences

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—The Panama Canal—vital link in the United States defence picture—is virtually defenceless from air attack, according to Senator Elmer Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on War Department appropriations. He arrived here with a congressional party which inspected army outposts to the east and south.

Aid for Wounded

LONDON (CP)—Most of the funds collected in the United States for relief for war wounded will go to help British soldiers, according to Bertram Kruger, representative in England of the American Society for British Medical and Civilian Aid.

B.C.'s Share of War Orders Increases

OTTAWA (CP)—British Columbia is obtaining a good share of war orders from Canada and the Allies, Lloyd Craig, director of the British Columbia bureau of trade and industrial extension, said today.

"Our lumber movements have been very heavy," said Mr. Craig, "and we have been doing well, too, in uniforms and other wearing apparel, in machinery, and generally in the commissary line."

There have been no announcements yet regarding orders for aircraft construction in the west coast province, Mr. Craig said

No Vindictive Peace

BRITAIN'S FRIENDS AND BRITISH peoples everywhere agree with Mr. Chamberlain that the Britannic Commonwealth "did not enter this war with any vindictive purpose." Nothing Adolf Hitler and his Nazi cohorts say to the contrary will materially alter world opinion on this point. The record is clear. When the former Austrian corporal assumed control at Berlin six and a half years ago he instituted a program which contemplated a greater Germany—to be attained either by political chicanery, the threat of war, or by the application of force itself. The head of the Third Reich commenced hostilities with every vindictive purpose he and his hierarchy could conceive.

In spite of this record, however, the British Prime Minister very wisely informed Parliament at Westminster yesterday that "we do not intend to impose a vindictive peace." Nor was it unnatural or unexpected that he should find himself unable at the present juncture to indulge in a dissertation on the details of a final agreement between the belligerents. As he appropriately and pointedly reminded the House of Commons, "none of us know how long this war will last, in what direction it will develop, or, when it is ended, who will be standing on our side and who against us."

While Mr. Chamberlain emphasizes the difficulties in the way of any attempt to lay down today the conditions on which the basis of a new world is to be established, neither he nor the British government is frowning on the efforts now being put forward by intelligent and far-seeing patriots whose only concern—as it is the Prime Minister's—is the creation of an outlook after this war has been fought that will prevent beyond all peradventure a repetition of such a ghastly business.

Fine Work All Round

TO ALL THOSE WHO HAVE IN ANY way contributed to the outstanding success of the Community Chest and the Red Cross campaign the heartiest congratulations will be extended by the citizens of Greater Victoria. The objective of $100,000 was reached within the week set aside for its collection and, what is even more gratifying, pledges for a not inconsiderable sum in addition to this amount have reached the organization in charge.

It may not be out of place to say at this stage that the demands which will be made on this fund in the coming months very likely will substantially exceed the resources at the management's disposal. In common with other communities throughout the land, Greater Victoria has resolved that its contribution to the national effort shall be worthy of the capital city of the Province of British Columbia, and this must carry with it liberal recognition of unusual economic anomalies which in times of stress such as these can only be removed or ameliorated by assistance in kind.

No doubt the administrators of last year's Community Chest—a period in which war had not passed the rumor stage—could relate many instances of assistance rendered in circumstances of which the general public knows nothing. Similar cases may be multiplied in the early future. For this and many other equally potent reasons it is especially gratifying that the campaign just closed has met with such a warm and spontaneous response.

Down In the Sewer

SOVIET RUSSIA'S PROPAGANDA INtended to justify Moscow's policy toward Finland dwarfs in sheer stupidity and brutality anything that has come from the factory of the Herr Doktor Goebbels in Berlin. Today's information from the Russian capital is that the press is carrying reports of mass meetings of workers and soldiers which adopted resolutions containing such phrases as "it is time to exterminate the puny bug which dares to 'threaten' (quotes here are ours) the Soviet," and "the Red Army will exterminate the bandits and give a lesson to the scoundrels."

Stuff of this sort is not a very good advertisement for the reputation of Josef Stalin as a successful diplomat. One might almost suggest that Ambitious Adolf himself would think the theme a little overdone. Even Goebbels adopted a much less harsh key as he executed his commission to justify Germany's invasion of Poland. After all, there were nearly 33,000,000 Poles, supposedly in possession of one of the best armies in Europe, and, incidentally, assured of indirect aid from Britain and France. And Germany, as she eventually will have cause for regret, marched in.

Moscow, however, speaks for about 175,000,000 Russians and boasts the most wonderful fighting machine in the world. There are less than 4,000,000 Finns backed by an army of about 400,000 all told. Surely Stalin's persuasive ways could be employed without resort to propaganda which the worst sewer rat of gangsterdom would consider beneath his dignity. And what will the Canadian and United States "pinks" think about their comrades' description of Finland as a "puny bug" and a "bandit" and "scoundrel"?

Browder and Kuhn

MANY UNITED STATES NEWSPAPERS are wondering, as they contemplate the cases of Communist leader Earl Browder and Bund Fuehrer Fritz Kuhn, how far the average American patience will stretch. They are pointing out that for years the American people have listened tolerantly, if at times somewhat indignantly, to Browder's assaults on their government, and that they have more recently endured, with commendable indulgence, the taunts of Herr Kuhn. Their objections, of course, are quite natural. Both these men are what they term "professed addicts" to the principle of government which is alien to that dispensed in the United States.

It can be properly argued that if Mr. Browder were living in Soviet Russia and presumed to make "suggestions" to Josef Stalin as to how this or that should be done, he would either be given certain tasks to perform that would not be to his liking, or he would perhaps be "liquidated" in the manner most convenient to the Moscow rulers. And we have yet to learn that the head of the Nazi hierarchy welcomes with open arms any forthright suggestions for improvement of the present method of running the Third Reich—especially from an imitation Fuehrer domiciled in a country which still pays Congressmen to attack the administration.

Both Comrade Browder and Bunder Kuhn, however, live in the United States and both would appear to be somewhat "on the spot." The Communist leader is under charge of using a false name on a passport; the Hitlerian imitator with the embezzlement of funds from the organization of which he is head. Be it noted, nevertheless, they are both standing squarely on all the rights they would have our friends in the neighboring republic exchange for the delightful advantages of life under a dictatorship. The fact that both are being given a fair trial, of course, is scarcely likely to influence their respective desires to remake the world according to their own patterns.

Just As Expected

IN A NEWSPAPER ARTICLE ADOLF Hitler's Voelkischer Beobachter deals with the events leading up to the war and, of course, places the blame for the outbreak of hostilities squarely on Great Britain. Citing Britain's "crushing war guilt" and her "duplicity" during the crisis of last summer, the charge is boiled down here to four allegations, which follow:

1. Lord Halifax malevolently deceived the German government when he asserted that Warsaw had assured him the Poles were ready to negotiate.

2. Polish readiness for negotiation of moderate German proposals was lacking because the Poles believed they could rely on Britain's support.

3. The French government, which "obviously was interested in sending an authorized Polish agent to Berlin," was kept in the dark about actual happenings, and the assistance of the French ambassador in Warsaw was not invoked until noon on August 31, "when practically everything was too late."

4. Lord Halifax and his diplomatic helpers played a double game during the final decisive days last August, preventing direct contact between Warsaw and Berlin by "innumerable malevolent tricks and lies."

Nothing much can be added to the foregoing, save to declare that the British people deliberately egged on the British government to commit all sorts of skulduggery so that a nice, comfortable, cheap and pleasant war would be a certainty—and that when, on the morning of September 3, Prime Minister Chamberlain told them the news they were overjoyed.

Only tall men are being accepted for United States army duty in Panama because of the heavy underbrush. It could be embarrassing losing an army somewhere in the grass.

It's Just Too Bad That People Have Opinions!

From Ottawa Journal

The special Elections Act committee of the British Columbia Legislature has asked the House to approve an amendment banning "straw votes" on provincial elections, on the ground that such expressions of opinion "influence" the official vote. It is to be hoped the Legislature has more sense than its elections committee.

British Columbia is a long way from us, and the incident may seem petty, but there is a trend towards the suppression of the people's rights which is not limited to the coast province. Mr. Hepburn in Ontario calmly and arrogantly takes unto himself dictatorial powers to suppress municipal elections. A committee in British Columbia wants to suppress the innocent pastime of straw votes. It is all of a piece.

We are all greatly concerned with freedom in the abstract, but too much inclined towards indifference and complaisance when our local freedom is threatened in concrete detail. We accept petty infringements upon our rights when we should resist them vigorously. It is easy to say that nobody will suffer if British Columbians are denied the right to mark straw ballots in their provincial elections, and perhaps it doesn't matter in a material sense, but it is a small interference with the freedom of the individual which may furnish a precedent for a larger violation.

We have to fight oppression where we find it, and especially on the home front.

Across The Bay

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

LAST CONVULSION

IT ALWAYS HAPPENS this way. There is inevitably a dying convulsion to every session, and this time it was more grim than usual—the writhing, bitter convulsions and death rattle of the old class war, forced into the open and naked for all to see.

Before last night was over in this House the C.C.F. had unfurled the banner of industrial warfare as it has never been unfurled here before—the doctrine, in Mr. Winch's words, that all industry under the capitalist system is a struggle, a battle between employer and worker for a larger share of the profits. Back from Premier Pattullo came the warning that strikes are a form of civil war which could well end in the chaos of society. And from Mr. Pearson came the charge that Colin Cameron of the C.C.F. had deliberately agitated the Pioneer Mine trouble which at this moment is in a state of acute crisis.

Before this argument was over tempers were roused, faces flushed, men's deepest passions stirred and the House definitely split on the real issues of our economic system. Before it was over angry charges and counter-charges had been hurled back and forth, retractions had been demanded and even the Premier had been forced to withdraw some of his aspersions on the socialists.

PEARSON HITS BACK

THE TROUBLE all started, as you may read elsewhere, when the C.C.F. sought to open up Mr. Pearson's labor arbitration act to make it more favorable to union organization. This manoeuvre came at a psychological moment when the owners and the miners of the Pioneer Mine were in the gallery, both pressing their views of the present strike on the members and when the government was deeply worried over the whole situation.

Under these conditions of crisis Mr. Pearson felt the time had come for a showdown. He listened in the afternoon to Mr. Cameron accuse him and the government of being opposed to the organization of labor into unions, and to Mr. Cameron's warning that the growing unrest and disillusionment of labor in British Columbia would lead to an "inevitable result" not specified. In the evening Mr. Pearson struck back with the most vigorous speech of his career.

Tense, nervous, taut, the Minister of Labor appeared like a man unjustly accused who is determined to vindicate himself before the people against gross misrepresentations and misunderstanding. He is a master of detail and in a detailed argument like this the ablest man in the House.

His speech traced the history of the labor legislation from the beginning and the whole story of the Pioneer strike. But it became really interesting when he read from a report of Mr. Cameron's speech to the Bridge River miners last month when the fiery C.C.F. organizer declared that the strike there was just part of the general struggle for a new world order, the universal class war. And it appeared that Mr. Cameron had gone further and accused the magistrates and police of British Columbia of being corrupt, the government dishonest. The gist of Mr. Pearson's charge was that Mr. Cameron had fomented trouble and agitated the Pioneer miners to break the labor act, for which they were penalized by the courts.

LETTER TO THE U.S.

By this time the House was tense and silent and when Mr. Pearson went on to read the secret correspondence of the Pioneer miners' local union with their international organization in the United States, asking for its sanction for a strike, you could have heard a pin drop. So long as such conditions existed, so long as unions deliberately broke the law the government, said Mr. Pearson, didn't intend to relax its arbitration act in the least.

After a little dreary clowning by Tom Uphill, who should have known better than to introduce horseplay into a matter of such grave concern to his labor constituents, Mr. Winch rose up, with a peculiarly harrowed look, to do a job on the government. He did a good job.

Shouting with emotion, he told Mr. Pearson that there was no use accusing labor organization of being international when capital was international, when British Columbia industry was dominated by American capital and by Americans who constantly were here lobbying the government and the House.

Then he came to his central doctrine, which is not often proclaimed so frankly—that all industry under our present system is "bound to be a struggle between worker and employer, a fight for a sharing of the profits between the exploiter and exploited." And as he went on to denounce Mr. Pearson's handling of the Pioneer strike his father, Mr. Winch Sr., leaned forward giggling and fairly hugging himself with parental delight, muttering over and over: "How do you like it?"

When young Mr. Winch had finished an able attack on the government and a good defence of C.C.F. labor views old Mr. Winch rose up to question Mr. Pearson's "degree of sincerity" but after a long wrangle with Mr. Speaker was compelled to withdraw unreservedly.

PREMIER RULED OUT

MR. PATTULLO had hardly got to his feet before the same thing happened to him. As soon as the Premier "wondered" whether Mr. Cameron and Mr. Winch had not been mixed up in promoting the Pioneer strike, Mr. Cameron demanded a withdrawal and kept insisting on it and though the Premier said he could hardly withdraw what he was wondering in his own mind he had to bow to Mr. Speaker's impartial ruling and make complete withdrawal.

Mr. Pattullo caught young Mr. Winch neatly when he pointed out that the C.C.F. leader regarded society as a class struggle, an inevitable battle between employer and worker, and yet tried to say he favored peaceful settlement of industrial disputes. As for the Premier, he looked on strikes as a kind of internal anarchy, a form of civil war and if they spread to essential services, like the distribution of milk to babies, to police and civil services they might lead to chaos. The Premier was very vigorous about this, his face flushed, his fist clenched.

When Mr. Maitland supported the government and opposed any amendment to the arbitration act now the C.C.F. felt that the lines of the class war had been definitely drawn in this House. Anyway, in the end, the Socialists got no support from any other party on a formal division and their amendments were lost.

Trades Unions Tyrannical? Can the Theatre Survive?

By DOROTHY THOMPSON

IN HIS prosecution of monopolies, Thurman Arnold, Assistant Attorney-General of the United States, has gotten around to trade unions, and it was high time somebody did.

Mr. Arnold's letter, addressed on November 19 to the Central Labor Union of Indianapolis, is an attempt to define what are and are not legitimate rights of labor unions. Among others, he defines as illegitimate the following practice:

"Unreasonable restraints designed to compel the hiring of useless and unnecessary labor."

NOW, THIS unreasonable restraint is constantly practiced by trade unions, and this, rather than their attempts to establish decent working standards, is what is getting the American public thoroughly fed up.

The musicians' union is a notorious case in point. Producers of plays are constantly held up by the musicians' union—"held up" are words carefully chosen. The musicians' union has adopted the rule that if any music is used in a play, even if that music consists of an actor putting a dance record on a phonograph, the performance comes within the jurisdiction of the musicians' union, and thereupon they swoop down upon it and mulct it for all it is worth.

In "The Cradle Will Rock," the music consisted of the composer himself, Mr. Marc Blitzstein, playing the piano, but the production had to support twelve musicians whose contribution to the performance consisted of reporting at the correct hour and playing cards back stage.

In "The Time of Your Life," there is a one-minute song — a Salvation Army hymn—during which one man plays a trumpet and another beats a drum. But you can't hire a drummer and a trumpeter; you have to hire four men; that's the minimum for any show with music. If the musicians' union decide that a show is a musical then the minimum is an orchestra, and that is 16 men. Sometimes, in a burst of generosity, they make concessions and let you get away with only 12 when three would do.

All this has nothing to do with the wicked capitalistic system. The musicians' union don't care whom they shake down. The original version of "Pins and Needles," put on by the Ladies' Garment Workers, called for two pianists, but it is carrying 12 musicians. The producers have managed finally to fix it so that most of them actualy play music at some point in the play.

THE STAGE HANDS and electricians also co-operate to make it impossible to produce any theatrical performance rationally.

When the Mercury Theatre was playing "Julius Caesar" and preparing the production of "Shoemaker's Holiday" four musicians were demanded to play a one-page score written for two trumpets, and when the two who really played trumpets arrived one morning to rehearse with the composer, they asked an electrician to turn on a light. But the electrician was hired, he informed them, to turn on lights for "Julius Caesar," not for "Shoemaker's Holiday," so he first refused, at last consented, turned on the light, and sent a bill for $21 the same afternoon.

Of course, nobody else could turn on the light, because that is the territory of the electricians.

THEN THERE IS the Trade Union of Company Managers, Treasurers and Press Agents. No producer may manage his own play; that is to say, he may, but he must hire a manager whether he needs him or not, and he must also hire a press agent and a treasurer. This little item threatens to put some of the summer theatres out of business.

And it costs $500 to get into this racket.

AND WHILE Mr. Arnold is on the subject he might take up the question of whether a trade union has the right to expel a member for political activities—as the American Federation of Musicians attempted to do with Mr. Walter Damrosch in the spring of 1938. The musicians' union have a closed shop, and if they had really expelled Mr. Damrosch he could no longer have conducted an orchestra.

Mr. Damrosch's crime was to have testified adversely before the United States Senate on the Pepper-Coffee bill, providing for a reorganization of the Federal Arts Projects, which would have put them into the hands of the unions. Mr. Damrosch thought this would be bad for art and said so.

So he was hauled up on the carpet and threatened with expulsion.

This same musicians' union exercises a veritable terror over any organizations that are dependent on musicians.

MR. ARNOLD might further raise the question whether trade unions have the right to shut out qualified workers, or to set entrance fees which are so high that no ordinary worker can ever pay them. It is about as hard to get into the Scenic Designers' Union as into the Century Club. The initiation fee is $500. Musicians pay an entrance fee of $50, $1.40 a month, rain or shine, and a 3 per cent tax when they are working—or playing cards backstage. But you have got to have a good wad of money in the bank in order to join the Stagehands' Union. And you can't just join the Scenic Designers' or Stagehands' Union. You have to be elected.

IN THE FIELD of art—acting and music—the unions act as though the artists were workers on a moving belt. The restrictions regarding rehearsal hours are such that it is absolutely impossible to achieve that perfection of performance that is the essence of the artistic spirit.

Actors' Equity legislates regarding the rights of aliens. A foreign actor—which means anybody who has not gotten his final citizenship papers— may not act in two plays within six months without special permission from the union. If the foreign actor goes through rehearsals, opens, plays two nights, and the show shuts down, he is forcibly unemployed for the next half year.

This is in the nature of a tariff imposed by a union on imported services and it is a question, I should think, whether it is constitutional.

IN THE THEATRE, the net effect of union policy is to deliver the theatre over to the most speculative commercial spirit. It makes the theatre dependent, to an unnecessary degree, upon money. It costs so much to put on plays that no one can afford to experiment, to try co-operative ventures, to build up a public for a better or more serious or more original theatre.

That is one joker in the whole business. The unions fulminate against exploitation; against the overweening power of money. But they are largely responsible for this overweening power. It takes a speculative capitalist, willing to undertake huge risks, in the hope of a gain totally disproportionate to this investment if the play succeeds, to finance any theatrical undertaking.

There can be neither an experimental theatre, nor opera or theatre for the people, unless the trade unions revise their monopolistic, parasitic and destructive policies.

PAN-CANADIAN UNION

From Trail Times

In the name of true patriotism, a movement is underway to organize a Dominion-wide organization to be known as the Pan-Canadian Union.

Originating in Montreal, the movement is gaining the support of leading French-Canadians. They are convinced that in view of the turn in the recent Quebec elections heralded as a vote for Canadian unity, that the time is now opportune to cement that unity for all times. The union, which will have branches in cities throughout Canada, is expected to have the support of all the elements able to fight against the agents of disunion, hatred and separatism.

Leaders of the Pan-Canadian Union cites the objectives as: To seek to maintain Canadian unity, good will among different ethnic groups, a truly Canadian spirit, progress in education, interprovincial visits, exchange of scholars and professors, holiday colonies operating between provinces, bilingualism, and a host of other objectives proper to the reinforcement of the federal tie and to the improvement of living conditions among our compatriots.

Such a project cannot fail to appeal to millions of Canadians, especially at this time.

Pioneer Mine Strike Provokes Warm Debate

With the recent Pioneer Mine strike as the focal point, and the owners' and miners' representatives listening in the galleries, the Legislature flared up last night into a bitter argument over the bargaining rights of labor.

As the House firmly rejected 35 to 9 a C.C.F. move to broaden bargaining of rights of unions, Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, declared that as long as labor men were dominated by outside influences the government would not accept the changes.

Both he and Premier Pattullo charged the C.C.F. with influencing the Pioneer strikers, although the Premier was forced to withdraw the inference.

Mr. Pearson quoted Colin Cameron, C.C.F., Comox, as having charged magistrates and police with being corrupt and the government with being dishonest in dealing with labor.

The C.C.F. members charged Mr. Pearson with interpreting the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act unfairly to labor and bitterly resented the suggestion that British Columbia labor should not be organized on an international basis when industry and finance here were dominated from the United States.

Finally, they warned the government that its present attitude toward labor could only lead to an "inevitable result."

This brought the firm reply from Premier Patullo that strikes were a form of civil war which should only be the last result of labor men.

Mr. Cameron accused the government of being too ready to prosecute union men, while they feared a test of the act by big companies.

He said that the County Court judge who reduced the fine levied on W. A. Cameron in the Pioneer case had expressed the opinion the union had placed a reasonable interpretation on the provisions of the act. If a judge thought so, no criticism could be placed on the men, who were not lawyers, he said.

Mr. Cameron argued that the employers should be the ones to dispute whether a union represented the majority of his men. Such a decision should not be a responsibility of the Minister of Labor, as was now the case.

He charged the Pioneer Mines Company had deliberately and repeatedly flouted the labor law by refusing to bargain collectively with the union at the mine, which, he said, the company knew represented the majority of its men.

It was time the government took a definite stand against employers who wanted to break down unionism.

Mr. Cameron said he was shocked that the government allowed the B.C. Mining Association to come before it—while the Pioneer case was still sub judice—and make a scurrilous attack on the men as Communist agitators.

"This was obviously contempt of court," he said. "This is the sort of thing that is wrecking the confidence of the people in the intentions of this government."

Attorney-General Wismer interrupted that there had been no statements on the merits of the Pioneer case that would be contempt of court.

"It was an obvious attempt to prejudice the court by blackening the character of the men," said Mr. Cameron. "If it wasn't contempt it was a contemptible action."

He concluded by warning the government that if it did not clarify the labor act it could expect the "inevitable result."

Mr. Pearson definitely labeled the attack on the labor act by the C.C.F. as part of the class struggle to bring about a new social order.

"But this government," he said, "wants industrial progress and social progress to go hand in hand. This government believes it can be done without the pain and the suffering which the worker must suffer if he attempts to do it in the way the opposition suggests."

He declared the whole principle of the labor act was to prevent strikes and industrial warfare until every phase of conciliation and arbitration had been carried out.

The act specifically stated, he said, that employers must bargain with an employee's representatives when they have been appointed by majority vote, and in no case that has been brought to the government's notice has this been refused. Nor did it matter whether it was a local man that was chosen or an outsider, as long as he was the majority choice.

He explained the entire procedure of the act, and insisted that neither union agreements nor closed shops were prevented so long as they were agreed to by the majority.

NOT HOSTILE

"It has been said that my views are hostile to labor. That is a statement I can definitely challenge. It cannot be proved. The only reason I have got into difficulty is because I have gone out of my way time and again to satisfy myself that the majority wanted what was asked," Mr. Pearson said.

Mr. Pearson frankly admitted he had not gone into court to charge lumber companies in Alberni with intimidation, because he did not think he could prove it. That was the course of common sense.

But the Pioneer strike, he said, was definitely premeditated and started from orders outside the province by men who used the Pioneer miners for their own purposes.

CIRCULAR INCORRECT

Statements now being circulated by the union were not fact, the minister said, and went ahead in detail to show it. The court which ruled on the case had proved the strike illegal, he pointed out.

Whatever the men claimed now the government had not recognized their union as their bargaining agency, he said.

He claimed that the men working at Pioneer should be his friends rather than his enemies, for in their previous trouble they had obtained the best mining pay scale in Canada. Certainly the Pioneer Company did not like him because they thought he wanted to go too far in aiding labor.

Describing how he had sent an investigator to Pioneer to instruct the men in the way to proceed, Mr. Pearson declared that all along it was intended there should be a strike at the mine.

"It was intended," he said, "that this act should be ignored. Nothing we could have done would have prevented these men from going on strike."

To illustrate this point he quoted from a speech made by Colin Cameron at Pioneer after the strike was declared in which, he said, the Comox member declared that Pioneer was the front for the battle for a new social order in the class struggle. On Mr. Cameron's advice, they refused to budge.

Mr. Cameron arose at this point to say he did not know what espionage system had given the minister his speech, but it was misinterpreted.

PLANNED BIG NEWS

Mr. Pearson insisted that Mr. Cameron told the strikers he would make front page news of their case when he got to the Legislature and urged them to hold out until then.

The minister said it was improper for a member of the House to take this attitude when there was machinery for dealing with the situation.

He then read a letter, which, he said, was from an organizer at the mine to a union official in Colorado. This said that a strike vote must be taken between September 24 and 30 and that a strike must be called before November because it would be a poor time to strike in winter. The letter said that if the union "cracked" Pioneer it could watch for developments all over B.C.

Mr. Pearson said this letter definitely showed the strike was organized from outside the province, and that the union was blocking the attempts of the co-operative committee that had been negotiating with the mine management.

He said it was not fair to say that any company would not bargain with its employees unless a complaint to the government showed this. Nor was it necessary to go outside the province to get anyone to do the bargaining.

When his investigator went into Pioneer he did everything possible to show the men how they could come under the act, but they would not take advantage of it, Mr. Pearson said. He urged them to go back to work and then take a firm vote.

"But it was never intended they should go back to work. The strike was deliberate," he declared.

Mr. Pearson closed with the declaration that as long as labor was battling amongst its factions as in the United States and fighting employers, the government would never agree to full bargaining rights for unions.

OUTSIDE INFLUENCE

"Industry in British Columbia, in the main, was dominated from outside," Harold Winch said, yet there was never a word from the government about that, only talk of labor being dominated from the United States.

"Representatives from outside, whose interests are inside this province, come to the Parliament Buildings and lobby," Mr. Winch said. "Time after time, on the floor of this House we've seen this government put in legislation suggested in the United States, particularly by the logging interests."

He said one of the great logging industrialists on Vancouver Island had lived here for years and yet was still a citizen of the United States.

Big business, he said, was international, yet when labor had the audacity to be international, it was criticized. The minister made much of the fact the strike was called from the other side of the line. Mr. Winch said from evidence in the letter it was called in Pioneer. The letter was seized by the court and handed over the minister.

Mr. Pearson said he was not sure where the letter came from, except it was from a responsible person.

"The trade union movement in British Columbia is democratic, admittedly international in many cases," Mr. Winch said, "but local unions make final decisions and I'm certain this was done in Pioneer."

CHARGES INTIMIDATION

He said he realized the minister himself knew there was dissatisfaction with the act. Intimidation was the most serious thing in the labor movement, he said; employers would do their utmost to stop organization.

R. L. Maitland, K.C., Leader of the Opposition, said a measure of this kind was very dificult and that his party felt the act should be given an opportunity to prove itself before any amendments were brought in.

E. E. Winch, C.C.F., Burnaby, said if the minister were sincere he would accept the recommendations of the workers themselves, and until he did this he (Mr. Winch) would doubt the minister's sincerity.

The Speaker said this was a reflection on a member of the House and he asked Mr. Winch to withdraw. After some argument Mr. Winch withdrew the remark.

Premier Pattullo said he wondered if the members for Comox and Vancouver East (Mr. Cameron and Mr. H. E. Winch) had not something to do with influencing the strike themselves.

Both C.C.F. members asked the Premier to withdraw.

The Premier said he could hardly withdraw what he was wondering. However, at the Speaker's insistence, the Premier unreservedly withdrew the remark.

"I haven't the slightest hesitation in saying I look upon strikes as a form of civil war," the Premier said.

Chaos would result, he said, if milkmen, the civil service and others struck.

"I take the ground a strike should be the last resort, not the first," he said. "In Pioneer it was used as the first resort."

War Farm Plans Given Approval

The agricultural committee of the Legislature reported to the House yesterday that British Columbia is tackling its wartime farm program along sensible lines.

After hearing departmental officials and officers of the special agricultural production committee, Frank Putnam, chairman, reported as follows:

"It is the opinion of your committee that the several branches of the agricultural industry in this province are being directed along lines that will ensure adequate production of essential foodstuffs during the war period and that future normal requirements of agricultural commodities are being kept in mind so that marketing complications may be avoided after the conclusion of hostilities."

The committee, said the report, was much impressed with the comprehensive information presented.

On its investigation of the freight rates on feed grains for farmers, the committee said it found that "individual farmers and farmers' organizations are taking advantage of the special feed grain freight rates in increasing numbers."

The feed grain prices had been protested by C.C.F. members.

Appeals Allowed On Water Licenses

The right for a person to appeal against cancellation by the water comptroller of a license was written back into the Provincial Water Act in the Legislature yesterday.

Under the bill, which revises the old water law, it was proposed to limit appeals from the comptroller to the minister of the department. R. L. Maitland, K.C., Conservative leader, protested vigorously that this was taking away a constitutional right of appeal to the courts on any question and Attorney-General Wismer accepted his suggestion and replaced the appeal provision.

The government's explanation had been that the appeal clause was deleted because there had been no appeals for 20 years.

Oppositions Win Point in House

Conservative and C.C.F. oppositions in the Legislature last night met with their first real success of the session when they pressed so hard a government member withdrew a bill which would bring country stores within two miles of municipal boundaries under the laws of the municipality.

R. R. Burns, Liberal, Rossland-Trail, sponsoring the bill, said these small stores were remaining open after stores in the municipalities were forced to close. They were not subject to fire regulations, yet the municipal fire and police departments had to protect them. They escaped building regulations and other laws, yet when municipal stores were closed they were allowed to stay open, thus working a real hardship on the stores in the municipalities.

R. L. Maitland, K.C., Leader of the Opposition, said no one but the government should have brought in such a bill.

Macgregor Macintosh, Conservative, the Islands, said many stores in unorganized districts of the Saanich Peninsula certainly would not want to be under the laws of Saanich Municipality.

R. W. Bruhn, Conservative, Salmon Arm, said the people of unorganized districts should know about the matter and recommended it be left over a year.

Mrs. D. G. Steeves, C.C.F., North Vancouver, also said such a bill should be left standing a year, so people would know about it. Mr. Maitland said the principle of the bill was bad and he saw protests from all parts of British Columbia.

Under such a barrage of protestation, Premier Pattullo said he would have no hesitation in asking the member for Rossland-Trail to stand the bill over for 12 months.

Utilities Board Given Wider Power

The Public Utilities Commission of British Columbia will be given absolute power to determine whether rates charged by utility companies are fair or not.

This authority is given in a bill amending the Public Utilities Act, put before the Legislature yesterday by Premier Pattullo.

It states:

"It shall be a question of fact, of which the commission shall be the sole judge, whether any rate is unjust or unreasonable, or whether in any case there is undue discrimination, preference, prejudice, or disadvantage in respect of any rate or service, or whether service is offered or furnished under substantially similar circumstances and conditions."

Another important change in the act gives the commission power to assess a utility company for only part of the cost of an appraisal of its property. The original act stated that all of such costs should be paid by the company and could be charged back in rates to the public.

Other alterations are generally to strengthen the administration of the act, not dealing with vital principles, and to remove motor vehicle transportation from the act. The new Motor Carriers Act now covers this form of utility.

Widens Compensation For Silicosis

Amendments to the Workmen's Compensation Act, widening the compensation payable for silicosis cases among hardrock miners, were approved by the Legislature yesterday and given third reading, but only after the government rejected further proposals of the C.C.F.

E. E. Winch, C.C.F., Burnaby, was ruled out of order on his attempt to provide compensation for pneumoconiosis and tuberculosis.

Protesting bitterly that he did not have a chance to discuss them, Mr. Winch was forced into silence.

Mrs. D. G. Steeves' plan to include domestic servants under the act, and amendments proposed by Samuel Guthrie were not even raised.

Canada Sells More Cattle

OTTAWA (AP) — Imports of heavy Canadian cattle by the United States in the period from October 1 to November 25 inclusive, totaled 32,030 head, or 78.38 per cent of the fourth quarterly quota for this class of cattle, according to a report by the Dominion Department of Agriculture.

Barter Breaks Down

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—A 14,500,000 peso ($4,350,000) deal to barter wheat and wool for German railway equipment has collapsed under the weight of wartime restrictions. Officials of the Argentine State Railways state German firms, including Krupp and Thyssen, which contracted to furnish 900 freight cars, 30 sleepers and 66 switching locomotives, have given notice they will be unable to fulfill their contracts.

BILL APPROVED

The Legislature occupied a good deal of its time yesterday wading through the 281 sections of the new Provincial Elections Act.

Section by section the House passed the bill, which had already been dealt with piecemeal by the special committee that has been sitting on it for two weeks.

There was little argument as it went through the House, but a few members asked for explanations.

One point raised in the discussion was that under the new bill a candidate will not be permitted to run for two seats in the same election.

The last time this occurred was in 1933, when the late W. J. Bowser ran in Victoria City and Vancouver Centre. He died before polling took place and special by-elections were required in each of the ridings.

Civil Servants Pensions Protected

Provision for the government to continue making superannuation payments on behalf of civil servants who joined the Allied forces was contained in a bill brought down in the Legislature yesterday by Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary.

The bill also allows employees on the old New Westminster Bridge who have been transferred to the Dominion Government service to draw on the provincial pension fund when they are superannuated. A similar arrangement is made for civil servants who transfer to other government work where ordinarily they could not come under the pension scheme.

WAGE PAYMENTS SEMI-MONTHLY

The Legislature last night approved a bill sponsored by Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, which forces all employers in industrial undertakings to pay their employees at least semi-monthly.

Employees who, by contract, earn $2,000 a year or more are exempt from the new measure.

Terms of the bill provide that when a case is taken for infringement the employer must pay not only a fine of up to $25, but must pay the arrears in wages that an employee claims.

Occupations covered by the new bill include: mining, quarrying and other works for the extraction of mineral, all kinds of industries in which things are manufactured, repaired or finished, construction of all kinds and the fishing industry.

Register Forms Sent to Ottawa

VANCOUVER (CP)—Officials in charge of the Voluntary Registration of Canadian Women announced here last night a total of 29,775 British Columbia women had signed up for emergency service in wartime.

The total includes figures from 36 districts throughout the province, with returns yet to be received from Grand Forks-Greenwood, Kaslo-Slocan, Nelson-Creston and Rossland-Trail.

Mrs. L. M. Dryden, honorary provincial secretary, announced the campaign was officially closed, and today a large packing case containing the completed forms was sent to Ottawa for use of authorities in the federal capital.

A total of 8,295 women registered in the seven Vancouver Island districts—the largest total coming from the joint Victoria city, Oak Bay and Victoria West area.

In Victoria city 2,716 women signed up, 1,027 in Oak Bay, and 142 in Victoria West; Saanich had a total of 1,042.

Totals for other Vancouver Island centres:

Alberni-Nanaimo, 653; Comox, 456; Cowichan-Newcastle, 1,155; Equimalt, 670, and the Islands 434.

In Vancouver some 10,433 women registered for special service, while the northerly Atlin district had an aggregate of 117.

The Cariboo had 443, Fernie 406, Kamloops 692, New Westminster 1,039, Prince Rupert 292, Revelstoke 448, and Peace River 118.

Catholics Busy On Two-day Bazaar

Many attractive novelties and useful articles suitable for gifts have been fashioned by deft fingers for the annual two-day Christmas bazaar to be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Government Street, on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Arranged by the parish of St. Andrew's Cathedral, the fair will be formally opened at 10 on Friday morning. At the many prettily-decorated stalls, fancy work, novelties, home cooking and similar wares will be offered for sale.

Afternoon tea will be served, and a specialty will be made of the hot dinners, which are under the direction of Mrs. J. de Blacquiere.

Weddings

LARSSON—LEECE

Of interest in Victoria was the wedding which took place in Holy Trinity Church, Vancouver, November 25, when Muriel Agnes, elder daughter of Mr. George Leece of Victoria, was married to Mr. Stanford Larsson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Larsson, 5904 Ormidale Street, Vancouver.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. D. B. Larmonth, and the bride was presented in marriage by her grandfather, Mr. E. Leece Sr. She wore a pin-stripe suit with black accessories and a corsage of talisman roses and white bouvardia.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Larsson, sister of the groom, also wore a pin-stripe suit with blue accessories and a corsage of pink and rose carnations.

Mr. Sheriff Baldwin was best man.

Following the wedding the couple left for a motoring trip on Vancouver Island and on their return will live at Sunset Lodge.

ENGAGEMENTS

GENGE—HARRIS

Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Harris, 345 Gorge Road West, announce the engagements of their second daughter, Dorothy Zulima, to Lieut. James Robert Genge, R.C.N.V.R., only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Genge, 534 Vancouver Street. The marriage will take place quietly early in December.

GILLIES—GREEN

MISSION, B.C. (CP)—The engagement is announced here of Margaret, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Green of Mission, to Jerry Gillies, eldest son of Mrs. K. L. Gillies of Victoria. The wedding will take place on December 16 at the home of the bride's parents.

GOOD—HELGESEN

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Helgesen of Sooke announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Violet Christine Helgesen, R.N., to Lionel Hilary Good, youngest son of Mrs. J. H. Good of Nanaimo and the late Mr. Good. The wedding will take place at Sooke early in January.

PRICE—PRENDERGAST

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Prendergast of Squamish announce the engagement of their second daughter, Mildred, to Mr. Robert Price, second son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Price of Victoria. The wedding will take place quietly in Vancouver December 26.

Well-known Couple Married Today At Cathedral

Muriel Chadwick Is Attractive Bride Of William G. Flett

Of wide interest was the wedding solemnized this afternoon at 2.30 in Christ Church Cathedral between Muriel Audrey, only daughter of Mrs. K. M. Chadwick, 1030 Richardson Street, and the late Mr. Chadwick, and Mr. William G. Flett, Union Club, Victoria, younger son of Mr. William Flett of Vancouver and the late Mrs. Flett. Very Rev. Spencer H. Elliott, Dean of Columbia, performed the ceremony, and Mr. Stanley Bulley, Cathedral organist, played the bridal marches and wedding music.

Given in marriage by Mr. P. E. Corby, the bride was a charming figure in her beautiful gown, a Balenciago model in French faille silk in ocean mist tone, fashioned in floorlength, with long-sleeved jacket finished with mink revers. Her small model hat, of the same tone as her gown, was edged with mink, and her shoes and accessories were in bronze. She carried a shower bouquet of cerise roses.

Miss Margaret Flett, sister of the bridegroom, was the only attendant, wearing a mid-Victorian gown in mist-blue crepe, a harvest wine velvet turban, with elbow-length gloves of matching material, and shoes of wine suede, and carried a bouquet of shaded pink chrysanthemums and carnations. Mr. E. B. Corby of Vancouver was groomsman, and Mr. H. Sabiston and Mr. H. Davidson were ushers.

RECEPTION AT EMPRESS

After the ceremony, a reception, attended by about 100 guests, was held in the Duke of Kent private dining suite at the Empress Hotel, the fireplace being banked with chrysanthemums in tones of bronze and yellow, with palms and ferns. The three-tiered wedding cake occupied the place of honor on a table effectively decorated with pink chrysanthemums and trailing fern.

Mrs. Chadwick, who was handsomely gowned in a Schiaperelli model in Rio-blue azura crepe, with bodice trim of appliqued silver lame, with model black hat and a corsage bouquet of Portland roses, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Alec Flett of Vancouver, sister of the bridegroom. She wore an imported lace jacket dress in grape wine coloring, floor-length, with a Gainsboro model hat of black velvet and a corsage bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. William Flett, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Flett, Mrs. John Forman, Mrs. Wm. Blackwood, Miss Hatch and Miss K. Ross, all of Vancouver; Mrs. Chas. Anderson, Alaska, and Miss Margaret Anderson, Seattle.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Flett left for a honeymoon in Washington State, the bride traveling in a smart lightweight woollen dress in two-toned Viking blue, with matching model hat, and an African brown squirrel coat and accessories. Her corsage bouquet was of Talisman roses. They will make their home in Victoria on their return.

$1,000,000 Diamond Is Worn By Deb At Style Show

By MARY ELIZABETH PLUMMER
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The briefest, costliest style show in many a day took place yesterday, with $2,000,000 worth of jewels flashing by in 15 minutes, and Brenda Frazier modeling a $1,000,000 diamond.

Onlookers agreed the show was the ultimate in something or other when the great diamond, which gleamed like a beacon, followed a $500,000 strand of pearls in a parade of gems designed by Paul Flato.

A 55-carat champagne-hued diamond drew more oh's and ah's. It sparkled on the hand of Lucy Saunders, and her necklace was golden oak leaves with diamond vines. Another dazzling piece, a jewelled clip, had ribbons of diamonds.

The show to all outward appearances was a casual event during luncheon at the Ritz; but six detectives and two patrolmen had an eye on the jewels.

The glamorous debs of last season showed the gems against a background of white feathers, which made a huge panel, and to the strains of zymbalon music, a stringed instrument played with drumsticks.

The Duchess de Tallyrand the former Anna Gould; the Archduke Franz Josef and his Archduchess of Austria and several hundred other socially prominent persons stopped eating their dessert to see the beauteous Brenda adorned with a 125-carat chunk from the Jonker diamond.

Her gown was sweeping black velvet, made in Spanish style, and a black lace mantilla covered her head. The great diamond, which was being shown for the first time since it was cut and mounted, is part of the 726-carat stone found five years ago by a poor South African farmer, Jacobus Jonker.

It is owned by Harry Winston and is said to be the largest diamond in the world with modern cutting.

The largest in existence is the celebrated Koh-i-Noor diamond, worn by the British Queen at her Coronation.

Cupid's Work Almost Doubled By War

OTTAWA (CP)—Dan Cupid is liable to wear out his bow or run out of arrows at the rate he's been working since the start of the war.

Marriages in 67 cities and towns in Canada during October, the second month of the war, totaled 7,297 compared with 4,607 in October last year, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. During the first month of the war the increase was 68½ per cent over September last year.

Births registered number 7,300 compared with 6,819 in October, 1938, and deaths 4,228 compared with 4,230.

Two interesting events are expected in the new year in two of Europe's reigning families, according to official announcements. Left, is the former Swedish Princess Ingrid, granddaughter of the Duke of Connaught, and now wife of Crown Prince Frederich of Denmark, and right, the Princess of Piedmont. Former Princess Marie Jose of Belgium, she is the wife of Crown Prince Humbert of Italy and is already the mother of two children, a princess born in 1934 and a prince born in 1937.

Social and Personal

Miss Helen Struthers will be a guest of the Victoria Home League at their weekly meeting for women tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 in the Salvation Army Citadel, Broad Street. She will speak on "China" and appear in native costume. Mrs. M. Wilkinson will preside.

A surprise shower was held for Mrs. J. Watson, nee Rhoda Ash, at the home of Mrs. J. G. Bragg, 1751 Kings Road, on Monday evening. A gally-decorted basket held the many presents. A buffet supper was served and many amusing games were played throughout the evening. Those present were: Mrs. J. Rawlings, Mrs. C. Galvin, Mrs. J. Britton, Mrs. L. Levert, Mrs. T. Arnason, Mrs. C. Gay, Mrs. G. Merriman and the Misses Evelyn Catchpole, Beatrice Hale, Hilda Hamer and little Carol Rawlings' and Dorothy Galvin.

Miss Mildred Marshall and Mrs. Jessie Price were co-hostesses at a towel shower held at the former's home, Colville Apartments, Cook Street, last evening in compliment to Miss Mildred Phillips, who is to be married next month to Mr. John Kellerman of Vancouver. On her arrival, the bride-elect was presented with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations, and a corsage of mauve chrysanthemums was presented to her mother, Mrs. J. D. Phillips, Christmas decorations were used in the rooms, and the many lovely gifts were concealed beneath the branches of a prettily-decorted Christmas tree. Games were played and supper served from a table at which Mrs. J. D. Phillips presided. The other invited guests included Miss Patricia Phillips, Miss Muriel Chapman, Miss Ethel Gardiner, Miss Kathleen Scroggie, Mrs. J. Homer, Miss Miriam Alexander, Mrs. Ned Bradshaw, Mrs. Walter Scorbey, Mrs. Walter Lukes and Mrs. M. Glenney.

In compliment to Miss Eileen Leetham, whose marriage will take place on Saturday evening, members of Belmont United Church presented her with an electric toaster, the president, Mr. W. B. Johnston, making the presentation on behalf of the choir and conveying the good wishes of all members. Miss Kaye Knott also entertained at her home on Balmoral Road last evening in honor of Miss Leetham, when the lady members of the choir and others complimented her with a shower of useful and attractive gifts, stored in a large, prettily decorated slipper. Contests and music provided entertainment for the guests, the hostess being assisted by Miss Evelyn Curtis. Tea was served, Mrs. R. P. Knott assisting her daughter with the refreshments. Those present were Mesdames Leetham, Stuart, R. P. Knott, F. Smith, E. Watson, W. Tait, W. Johnston, T. Hardy, E. Cook, W. Harwood and the Misses Grace Stuart, Iva Leetham, Eileen Leetham, Florence Smith, Marjorie Fraser, Helen McLellan, Kaye Knott and Ev Curtis.

Miss Gertrude Snider entertained at a delightful "travel tea" at her home on Woodlawn Crescent. The reception rooms were arranged with pink and rose chrysanthemums, while mammoth yellow, white and bronze mums were effective in the music room. In the dining-room, where tea and cocktails were served, Mrs. W. J. McArthur presided at the tea table, which carried out the rich color scheme of golden yellow, burgundy and silver. Novel fruit candles flanked an attractive basket of fruit on the buffet. Miss Eleanor Swain delighted the guests with a group of songs, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Tebo, and Miss Doreen Briggs charmed all with her pianoforte selections. The artists were presented with dainty corsages by the hostess. As several of the guests had recently returned from Europe, included Miss Grace Attfield, Miss Mable Conibear, Miss Randall, Miss McEvoy and Miss Marjorie Nickerson, the afternoon was especially interesting. The other invited guests were: Mrs. R. E. Snider, the Misses Amy Adamson, Margaret Bell, Sheila Boyd, Doreen Briggs, Norah Colquhoun, Dora Curtis, Gladys Faryon, Gertrude Jackson, Mary Sinclair, Charlotte Stewart, Eleanor Swain, Lucy Shaw, Marjorie Tebo, Marion Wilson, Evelyn Wilson, Patty Swain, Frances Conibear.

Mrs. R. Evans and Mrs. R. T. Williams were hostesses recently to members of the Welsh Society at a party given to honor Miss Alice Mason, a bride-to-be of this week, and held at Mr. and Mrs. Evans' home on Chapman Street. Autumn flowers were effectively used throughout the house. Mr. R. Evans, president of the Welsh Society, presented Miss Mason with a beautiful tea set and several other gifts, with the good wishes of her assembled friends. Amusing games and contests were played and community singing brought an enjoyable evening to a close. A buffet supper was served from a table prettily arranged with a pale yellow cloth and centred with yellow chrysanthemums. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. R. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gurney, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. B. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. S. Rands, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. S. James, Mr. and Mrs. W. Jeune, Mr. and Mrs. S. Kinsey, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Williams, Mesdames Mountain, M. Thomas, T. C. Jones, T. Griffiths, J. Thomas, T. C. Jones, T. Griffiths, J. Veness, M. A. Lewis, Misses Alice and Ronny Mason, H. Jones, E. Evans, and Messrs. Bob Williams, D. Evans, and Messrs. Bob Williams, D. Howell Jeffrey and Lewis Evans.

SALT SPRING ISLAND

GANGES—The monthly meeting of Ganges Women's Institute was held in Mahon Hall, Mrs. T. Charlesworth presiding. The president stated that a class for instruction in spinning would be opened in the New Year. Discussions on the Social Credit Union, local Indian history and use of Indian designs for handicrafts featured the meeting.

Salt Spring Island Girl Rangers plan to hold a superfluities sale, organized jointly by the Rangers, Girl Guides and Brownies, December 2 at the Guide headquarters, Ganges Harbor.

SHIRLEY GOES TO SCHOOL

HOLLYWOOD, Cal. (AP) — Shirley Temple was at school today. Heretofore, the 10-year-old screen star has been tutored privately but her mother decided yesterday, and Shirley agreed, it was time she began associating more with other girls.

P.P.C.L.I. Auxiliary Will Raise Funds

The recently formed Women's Auxiliary to the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry will have charge of a home cooking stall in Spencer's hardware department on Saturday from 9 to 1. There will be jams, jellies, pickles, preserves, cakes, cookies and breads. Many of the jams and pickles came from the industrious housewives of Salt Spring Island.

The proceeds will be used for the comforts of the boys who recently left Victoria with the "Pats."

Working on the stall will be Mrs. E. Mitchell, president of the auxiliary; Mrs. Macgregor Macintosh, Mrs. Carew Martin, Mrs. W. Aldridge, Mrs. A. Limsley and Mrs. G. C. Holland.

EXTERNALLY CAUSED

FACIAL BLEMISHES GONE . . . Writes Mrs. Peter Coleman: "For two years I suffered with externally caused pimples on my face. They were large, hard and red. I tried many things, without success—until I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. In a couple of weeks there was a real improvement. Soon, all the blemishes were gone."

Writes Mrs. Stephen Farrel: "Due to some external cause, large pimples came out on my face and back. I used lotions and salves, but with very little help. Then I read about Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and began to use them. Relief came quickly, and in two months my skin was smooth and clear."

Writes Miss Rachel Reichert: "I had a bad case of externally caused pimples. For a year I tried all kinds of remedies, but none worked. Finally I began using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment—and after about a month and a half my face was very much relieved."

Help make your complexion dreams come true. Start using mildly medicated Cuticura Soap and Ointment today! Each 25¢. Buy at your druggist's.

Old Dobbin Goes To Green Fields

Old "Frankie," the faithful aged horse of Ling Kee who for many years has been seen in downtown streets with his big, black bulk slowly pulling Ling's old garbage wagon in the early-morning hours, is going into retirement.

Many persons will be sorry to see the old horse go, for in the years he has been doing the job they have learned to know him and like him.

While waiting patiently for his master to dump another load of refuse into the wagon, old dobbin always had a patient look that seemed to say he was bored about the whole thing.

Sometimes when his wait in one spot became to long, he crossed his legs and nodded himself to sleep.

Oftentimes he would be seen nodding sleepily with one foot on the curb and he had other laughable poses which amused the working public en route to their jobs in the morning.

He is getting old. He is around the 20-year-mark now and efforts are being made by the S.P.C.A. to find him a nice quiet home out on some country farm where he won't be called on to do much labor.

The S.P.C.A. has ordered him taken off his labor as he has been found to be suffering quite badly with sore front legs. He is lame now and it pains him to walk on the pavements and a veterinary has informed S.P.C.A. officials that if old dobbin is shipped out to a farm where he will have soft ground underfoot and his shoes taken off, his life may be prolonged considerably.

Mr. Allen was high in praise of the fine way Ling Kee had treated the animal during the many years it had served him.

"He was never known to be cruel to old dobbin and whenever the horse shows any signs of ailments Kee always takes him to a veterinary," Mr. Allen declared.

Toronto Woman Claims Estate

48-year-old Will Presented in $5,000,000 Case

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 48-year-old putative will by which the late Michael Francis O'Dea bequeathed half his $5,000,000 estate to a woman to whom he paid court in Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1891 was presented in Superior Court today.

It names as beneficiary Miss Pansy Blevins, now Mrs. Pansy Dunham of Toronto, who is 68 years of age.

At the age of 20 she first met O'Dea while he was on a business trip to Grand Rapids, she was quoted by her attorneys. O'Dea was then in his 40's and because of the differences in their ages and his distant residence (in California), she rejected his proposal of marriage.

But he wrote a will in which he declared Miss Blevins was the only woman for him and that he would never marry, bequeathing her half his property. Three years later she married Joe Dunham and they moved to Toronto.

A few weeks ago, Mrs. Dunham told the attorneys, she was placing fresh newspapers on her pantry shelves when her eye caught an advertisement for O'Dea's heirs. She then got out the will, which she said O'Dea gave her.

O'Dea died here in 1938, apparently in modest circumstances, without leaving a known will. When it was disclosed his estate approximated $5,000,000, a flood of 465 claimants stormed the court. That number has been reduced to 87 and their claims are to be submitted to a jury early next year.

THE WEATHER

VICTORIA, 8 a.m. today—A moderate depression is centred west of Vancouver Island and pressure is relatively high from Kootenay southward. The weather has been unsettled on the British Columbia coast, where heavy rains have occurred, while over the interior it is cloudy and mild. Temperature remains above normal in the prairie provinces.

ATHLETIC CENTRE FOR PORT ALBERNI

PORT ALBERNI—Port Alberni City Council on Monday evening considered a proposal from the school board for the erection of a community hall here to be used as a civic centre and gymnasium. Principal H. E. Murray of Port Alberni Central School stated that his school had a fund of nearly $500 which it was willing to place at the disposal of the project. The council decided to investigate the proposal, to which it is favorably disposed. Alderman C. Cook stated a public meeting to discuss the matter would be held shortly.

A letter from representatives of the new Deshaw Building revealed that this building extends some six inches on city property. After some discussion it was decided to permit Mr. Deshaw to keep the building in its present location provided that this action in no way be considered as prejudicing city rights.

The financial report for the week revealed that the finance committee had spent $1,138, works $1,552, water $501, relief $172 and parks $386.

Following a suggestion that a few local cases of skin eruption might be traced to contamination of water supply, the city had the local water tested and analyzed. The report showed that the water is pure.

A communication was received from the Attorney-General's department over the matter of headlights of not more than 32 c.p. as a matter of public safety, and that the new cars have headlights of 50 c.p. The department advised that under the circumstances the law would be changed so that lights of 50 c.p. would now be considered safe.

Clubwomen's News

St. Alban's Sunday school concert will be held at the hall on Friday evening at 8, the proceeds to be used for the children's Christmas tree and treat.

The drama group of Victoria Women's Institute met on Monday afternoon. Major Bullock-Webster was the speaker, his subject being "The Art and Technique of Prompting a Play." This was enjoyed and he was thanked for the group by Mrs. E. S. Blair, the convener. The next meeting will be held on December 11 at 635 Fort Street at 2.15, when all members are asked to attend. Tea will be served by Mrs. E. S. Blair.

The W.I. Weavers' Guild held their annual meeting Monday evening at 410 Union Building. The president, Mrs. J. L. White, was in the chair. A most successful year was reported by the secretary-treasurer. The guild expressed their appreciation of Mrs. White's leadership and presented her with a small token of their esteem. The secretary-treasurer was also remembered. The officers elected for the coming year are as follows: Honorary president, Mr. John Kyle; president, Mrs. J. L. White; vice-president, Miss Marjorie Hill; secretary, Mrs. S. Coulter; treasurer-librarian, Miss Vera Knevitt. The honorary vice-president and one director will be chosen later.

St. Mark's W.A. held their social meeting in the Parish Hall, with the largest attendance on record. Four new members joined the roll. Final arrangements were made for the sale of work for Friday, December 1, Canon Robert Connell to open the bazaar at 3 o'clock. A display of chrysanthemums by Mr. Okamoto will be shown and the blooms will be sold to aid the funds. The usual stalls, plain and fancy needlework, aprons, home cooking, candy, miscellaneous and Junior W.A., have been arranged. Teas will be served and the orchestra will play.

Victoria Chapter No. 25, Women of the Moose, held their social meeting Monday evening in the K. of P. Hall, Senior Regent Mrs. M. Carter presiding. Mrs. A. Spaven reported on sick members. After the meeting a comic hat parade, bingo and concert were enjoyed. Winners of the parade were Mrs. A. Hatcher, Mrs. E. Van Aphen and Mrs. A. McAllister. Songs were rendered by Miss Enid Middleton and Miss Diana Kerslake and Brucie Allen gave a song and tap dance. A Christmas tree and supper will be held for members December 11, members to bring gifts for the tree.

Question: Do some people eat extra vitamins and not feel improvement?

Answer: Yes. Slow digestion may prevent their assimilating the vitamins completely.

Get your extra vitamins this EFFECTIVE WAY that offers more complete results than just vitamins alone

EVEN if you think your vitamin supply is good—slow digestion may be keeping you, like so many others, from getting full benefit from the vitamins you eat.

That is why eating extra vitamins in Fleischmann's new High-Vitamin Yeast can offer you more complete results than vitamins alone.

Richer in 4 Vitamins

This improved High-Vitamin Yeast now gives you richer amounts of 4 necessary vitamins—A, B_1, D and G—needed by everyone to help keep up good resistance to colds, for steady nerves, sound bones, healthy digestion and to help you feel splendidly well and full of pep.

Aided by Yeast's "Booster Action"

In addition, you get the remarkable "booster action" of fresh yeast. By helping to stimulate slow digestion, the yeast helps you make fuller use of the vitamins you eat. It "boosts" their assimilation.

Why not start now to get these extra vitamins in this effective way? Eat 2 cakes of Fleischmann's High-Vitamin Yeast regularly every day—one ½ hour before breakfast, one ½ hour before supper—plain or in a little water or milk.

Two cakes of Fleischmann's High-Vitamin Yeast supply:

VITAMIN A—6200 Units (Int.)
VITAMIN B_1—300 Units (Int.)
VITAMIN D—800 Units (Int.)
VITAMIN G—150 Units (Sh. Bour.)

All the average person needs (in addition to his meals) of A, B_1 and D, and a rich supply of Vitality Vitamin G. Order from your grocer today.

Window Contest For Stores Off

Postponement of the annual Christmas store window contest of the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce was decided at a meeting of the contest committee last evening.

The contest will be held at Easter time, Bill Mearns, chairman of the committee, announces. It will most likely take the form of an Easter parade.

The main reason for the postponement of the contest was the fact that merchants found it difficult to give window space for three or four days at Christmas time.

Transportation Plans Discussed

Questions raised by the intermunicipal committee on plans for an intermunicipal transportation franchise were discussed and suggestions made by the Esquimalt Council at a special meeting which lasted two hours and 20 minutes in the Municipal Hall last night.

A motion was passed asking that the two existing transportation routes in the municipality be serviced by the new transportation system, with a suggestion that the service cover the district of Esquimalt south of the Macaulay golf course and Admirals Road passing the naval barracks.

The question of rights to purchase was left for further discussion.

It was suggested that a license fee of $1,000 and $10 for every half year on each vehicle which operated in the municipality, be charged.

A suggestion that a $50,000 deposit be required by companies submitting tenders was approved, and it was decided that an additional fee of $100 be charged to help pay for the cost incurred in the studying of the transportation question. The cost of preparing the tender, printing and advertising, should be shared equally by the three municipalities, the councillors agreed.

The meeting approved $100,000 as a surety bond to be renewable annually.

Endorsement was given to the suggestion of a 10-year franchise with one year's notice to be submitted before termination rather than three years.

Advertising on the vehicles of the transportation system was approved but the council was against smoking by passengers in the buses.

FOLLOWS OAK BAY

Esquimalt took the same stand as Oak Bay in regard to control. Oak Bay thought that there should be equal representation on a committee to control operations of a transportation company, with superior control retained by the respective councils.

Uniform fares with transfer privileges were favored for the city, Oak Bay and Esquimalt with the principle of no zones approved.

It was agreed that no safety zones or other structures be required to be constructed by the transportation company.

The municipal clerk was instructed to forward copies of the business of the meeting to the intermunicipal committee, the City Council and the Oak Bay Council.

"We are willing to co-operate in the establishing of the best transportation system with the lowest cost," Reeve Alex. Lockley said during discussion.

Winter Travel Reported Brisk

Even though the winter tourist season has hardly begun, visitors to Victoria are many, with the result that there is a demand for small modern flats or room and board close to town, Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau officials said today.

The bureau has received numerous letters from residents of parts of the United States and Canada who have signified their intention of visiting Victoria and the island this winter rather than to make trips to California or Florida as they had done in past winters.

Reports from some of the larger hotels of the city are favorable. One hotel manager reports that his business at the present time has shown a good increase over last year.

"I think increased business at present is mainly due to military activities," he said, "but I expect the winter tourist business to be good too. The winter tourists usually start to come here within the next week up until January 15."

Another manager of a popular hotel said that his business was about the same as last year but that he looked for considerable business from tourists from the east, Canada and the United States, after Christmas.

"A great improvement," another hotel manager said when asked how business at the present compared with last year.

He said that the war had affected the hotel business favorably. Winter travel from the east was expected in a month or so.

"Our business is considerably better than last year, although we cater more to winter residents than winter tourists," another manager said.

Logging Firms Hit By Island Floods

Losses sustained by the logging industry as a result of the recent floods on Vancouver Island are estimated in excess of $300,000.

A number of bridges were washed out, logging tracks have been inundated and equipment impaired, curtailing production.

Although conditions have considerably improved during the past few days, the effect of the floods on at least three of the major camps has been so serious that it will not be possible to restore operations on a normal scale for some time.

Many miles of track operated by the big east coast camps of Elk River Timber Company, Salmon River Logging Company and Campbell River Logging Company have been inundated.

Logging operations on higher ground have not been as much affected as those comparatively close to tidewater. Such camps as Bloedel, Welch and Stewart have been relatively free of flood damage. Most truck operators have been hard hit, but Comox Logging Company, with the biggest truck organization of its kind on the coast, has a fully-graded and surfaced road at a comparatively high elevation, and thus has escaped serious damage.

Most of the camps will close down for the winter layoff in mid-December. Lake Logging Company has anounced that when it closes December 20 it will probably remain shut down until mid-April, but barring exceptional snow, most camps will probably get back into production in January or February.

High School Alumni To Dance on Friday

Presenting one of its popular dances, the Victoria High School Alumni Association will be hosts at the Crystal Garden Friday evening. Music will be supplied by a four-piece orchestra and dancing will be from 9 to 1.

Exhibition numbers will be provided by pupils of Miss Florence Clough and prizes will be awarded to winners of spot dances.

The general public is invited and tickets may be obtained from executive members. Those in charge are William Hole, chairman, Marcia Beach, Walter Parker and Don Hughes.

DONATED—This twin-engined Beechcraft monoplane, which will carry eight persons and capable of cruising at 195 miles an hour, has been donated to the Royal Canadian Air Force by John David Eaton of Toronto, vice-president of the T. Eaton Company Ltd. It will be used as an advanced trainer at one of the air bases, according to the National Defence Department.

Prison Terms and Lashes

CALGARY (CP)—John Melnychuk, 23-year-old confessed bandit, was sentenced to five years in the Prince Albert penitentiary, with 10 lashes, by Magistrate D. C. Sinclair in city police court here yesterday. He admitted the armed robbery of two Delia families, one in October, 1938, the other just a week ago yesterday.

C. B. Smith Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—Charles B. Smith, 72, veteran newspaperman and at one time assistant managing editor of the old New York Evening World, died yesterday.

For the past year he had been one of the editors of the Encyclopedia American. Prior to that he was Sunday editor of the Philadelphia North American, and managing editor of the old Morning Telegraph.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Raring to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

MEET THE MORNING ON TOP OF THE WORLD

After too much eating and drinking "alkalize" excess stomach acids by this simple Phillips' Method.

1. Take 2 tablespoonfuls of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in a glass of water.

2. You'll feel wonderful at the office tomorrow and do a good job.

No acid headache . . . no upset stomach or nausea. Get this swift neutralizing agent today.

It's a wonderful feeling after over-indulgence—eating too much . . . smoking too much . . . or drinking unwisely . . . to know there is a way to wake up next morning feeling fit as a fiddle.

Here's what you do

"Alkalize" while you sleep: Take 2 tablespoons of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia in a glass of water—at Bedtime.

While you sleep, this wonderful alkalizer will be neutralizing excess stomach acids . . . easing the upset "full" feeling and nausea . . . getting your stomach back to "normal" so you rest easily. By morning you feel good as new!

Then—when you wake—take two more tablespoonfuls of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia with the juice of a whole orange.

Amazing how you feel!

Even though you have abused your stomach with too much eating, smoking or drinking, this simple way that thousands use avoids "paying the piper."

Try it. But when you buy, be sure you get the real Phillips' article . . . Clearly marked "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" in either liquid or tablet form.

Agreement Ends Chrysler Tieup

DETROIT (AP)—The longest and costliest labor dispute in automotive history, a 54-day deadlock between the Chrysler Corporation and the Congress for Industrial Organizations branch of the United Automobile Workers, ended today with agreement on terms of a new working contract.

Only ratification by union locals was needed to put the contract into effect and start 58,000 Chrysler hourly employees and an estimated 92,000 others in sales departments, automotive parts plants, rubber and glass industries affected by the long shutdown of Chrysler operations, back to work tomorrow.

Chrysler spokesmen said automobiles would be rolling off their assembly lines by Friday and that all plants would operate Monday.

Informed sources said the new contract, supplanting one which expired September 30, provided:

A general wage increase of 3 cents an hour for all Chrysler workers and an added increase for employees in Chrysler's Marysville, Mich., and Newcastle, Ind., plants, the total increase estimated to be about $5,000,000 annually.

Establishment of a four-man reviewing board, two members from the U.A.W.-C.I.O. and two from the corporation, to settle any grievances incapable of adjustment through the routine procedure, with a provision that an impartial mediator mutually agreed on by the four members may be called in as a last resort.

Standard of production to be set by the management, with the workers permitted to carry objections through the grievance procedure.

Agreement by the Congress of Industrial Organizations that its foremen's union will not renew a request for bargaining, and will not organize Chrysler foremen during the one-year term of the contract.

No union shop in any form, but the U.A.W.-C.I.O. is recognized as sole bargaining agent in the eleven plants covered by the contract. (The union had demanded a provision which would require all Chrysler workers to join the U.A.W.-C.I.O. within 30 days.)

A strike before all grievance procedure is exhausted, whether it be a walkout, sitdown or slowdown strike, would nullify the contract.

There was no official confirmation of any of these terms.

Chrysler workers lost $15,000,000 in wages during the 35 working days of the controversy, it is estimated, and the dispute cost the corporation $102,000,000 in loss of sales at the start of its 1940 production season.

RESUMPTON AT WINDSOR

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—J. D. Mansfield, president of the Canadian company, said today the Chrysler Corporation of Canada will resume normal operations as soon as settlement of the tie-up in Detroit makes materials available for the Windsor plant. The 54-day strike affected about 2,000 men in Windsor.

ONE LOSS MIGHT CRACK GERMANY

MONTREAL (CP)—One military victory by the Allies might bring the end of Germany's present government, Prof. Moritz J. Bonn, noted German economist, and one-time adviser to the German government, said here in an interview.

Prof. Bonn, now on the staff of the London School of Economics, said he did not believe, however, that Germany's leaders would "ever wait for the blockade to smash that country."

"If you in Canada or England do not like a government you throw it out. But defeat in Germany means death—the German leaders have to go forward or die.

"It would not have to be so much of a defeat," Prof. Bonn added. "One military victory would do, I believe."

Discussing the invasion of Poland, the economist said Stalin had "made a fool of Hitler" in Russia's occupation of Polish territory without fighting while Germany went to war. But Russia on the Finnish question might find herself in a position similar to Germany's—"two easy barks, and now perhaps she'll have to bite," he thought.

"The going was easy for Stalin up to the present" but war with Finland would change Russian policy of remaining on the sidelines while European nations weakened themselves by war, he said.

Soccer

Army-Navy Team Chosen

The Army and Navy soccer clubs pooled the cream of their soccer crops last night to form a strong United Services eleven to battle the Press squad Saturday afternoon on the "juvenile day" show at Macdonald Park—a card that promises to be plenty entertaining for the game's followers.

On paper the combined soldier-sailor team looks like a unit that will be capable of giving the scribes' selection a good brand of competition. This event will highlight a 2½-hour length program, in which juvenile ball-kickers will take a prominent part.

The services team is comprised of seven soldiers and four sailors. Three Army men are on the reserve list.

McIlvenny, a veteran of the soccer pitch, has been named manager of the United Services.

The lad who will guard between the sticks for the United Services team is Soldier Clarke, while Art Coates of last year's Young Liberals, but now in the Army, will be right fullback, and Navy's Marsh, left defenceman.

Lionel Speller, Army, who was with the Hudson's Bay last year, has been selected left half. Bruce Robinson, fine sailor footballer, will centre this line. Edwards of the Army will be right half.

Spares are Kennedy, Hiram Casillio and Jim Watt.

BASKETBALL suffered a great personal loss yesterday in the passing of Dr. James Naismith, "Father of Basketball." Canadian by birth, Dr. Naismith, who started out in the world to spread the Gospel, provided athletics with one of its greatest activities. The youth of the world has lost a great benefactor. Eighteen million men all over the globe are playing his game, which he originated for 18 troublesome young men in a class at Springfield, Mass., Y.M.C.A. College in 1891.

Dr. Naismith is directly responsible for all the large field houses, the large auditoriums and gymnasiums where basketball is played today. Before this game was originated there were few large indoor arenas that were used for any indoor sports. Dr. Naismith is also indirectly responsible for the forward pass used today in Canadian and United States football.

Until the popularity of basketball, which began to spring up in the colleges of America in 1905, the forward pass in football was not thought of. Then the football rules committee incorporated the forward pass, or basketball pass, in football and immediately the open game became popular.

Dr. Naismith gave to the youth basketball, a game that takes the youngster from the eighth grade to maturity. Eight famous educationists speaking from the same platform declared that basketball had all the qualities necessary to teach the child poise, rhythm, grace, co-ordination, development of skills and the development of physical vigor. The speakers were not competitive coaches, nor were they athletes. This game, the only international sport that is the product of one man's brain, stamped Dr. Naismith as a great educationist. He loved youth. He chose the profession of physical education over the ministry, in which he was ordained because he could do more for youth, he thought.

When Percy Page gets through rebuilding his Edmonton Grads basketball team, there's a chance one of the newcomers on it will be Margaret Colville, 16-year-old sister of Neil and Mac Colville of New York Rangers National Hockey League Club. Margaret is the youngest of the 10 players being tried out for the four vacant spots on the eight-player roster of the Underwood International Trophy holders. The others are Kay MacRitchie and Winnie Gallen, who played as spares with Grads during the fall; Betty Bawden, Flo Plante, Frances Gordon, Rena Fraser, Victoria Ewasiuk, Dorothy Allan and Hilda Hughes.

Brothers Neil and Mac may be able to claim a bit of the credit if their kid sister makes the team. Last summer they bought her a ball and in the backyard of their home they built a hoop standard so she could get lots of shooting practice. Backyard hoops are not new to Grad players. Similar ones brought good results to Noel MacDonald, former captain who retired this fall, and Joan Williamson, veteran who is expected to succeed Noel as centre.

Henry Picard of Hershey, Pennsylvania, the United States P.G.A. champion, leads Byron Nelson of Reading, Pennsylvania, the U.S. open champion, by only five points in their race for this year's Harry Vardon Memorial Trophy. Picard, winner of six major contests, has amassed a total of 459 points since the beginning of the year. Nelson, with 454 points, has won five major tournaments, including the United States and western open championships. Ralph Guldahl, former American open champion, although no longer in the running, lies third with 329 points. He is followed by Dick Metz of Chicago with 311 and Sab Snead, last year's winner, with 300. Picard is also America's leading money-winner to date. He has earned $10,202. Guldahl comes next with $9,377. Nelson is third with $8,600.

VICTORIA'S REP RUGGERS—Here are pictured seven members of the Crimson Tide who will be in uniform when the squad opens defence of the McKechnie Cup, symbolic of the provincial English rugby championship, on Vancouver soil against Varsity Saturday at Varsity Stadium. The youthful team that will make the trip looks like a championship unit. Coach Wally Brynjolfson will put them through a couple more stiff workouts before the Saturday engagement. The team, as announced last night, follows: Fullback, Jack Ferguson; three-quarters, Bill Halkett, Harry Barber, Brent Murdock and Jack Grogan; halfbacks, Bill Smith (captain) and George Langdon; forwards, Ian Acland, Joe Andrews (hook), Bob Mair, Bert Simpson, Frank Doheny, Campbell Forbes, Bill Gornall and Bill Thompson. Manager Bob McInnes points with pride to the fact that all the boys are in prime condition and he is confident they will open the series with a victory.

Ottawa Favorite

TORONTO (CP)—If a big if—Toronto Argonauts had upset Ottawa Rough Riders in the Interprovincial Rugby Union final, the Argos might have been overthrown in the eastern final by Sarnia Imperials.

That may sound like far-fetched second-guessing, for Ottawa and not the Argonauts will oppose Sarnia in Saturday's eastern playoff. The point is that the Imperials might very well have stopped Toronto's Dominion champions with tactics that don't figure to pull them past the well-rounded Rough Riders.

To make the argument clearer, Sarnia and Ottawa should be put down as orthodox, straight-ahead teams. The Argonauts are unorthodox and for that reason many thought they would get past the Rough Riders in the second game through their old hipper-dipper and passing.

As it is, two teams with sound lines and good kicking will meet here this week. Because the Rough Riders apparently have everything the Imperials have, but in greater quantities and with first-rate passing as well, everyone is forecasting an Ottawa victory.

Winner of the Ottawa-Sarnia engagement will meet the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, western Canada champions, in the Canadian final.

EMPIRE SNOOKER PLAY

LONDON (CP) — Arthur Goundrill today beat Conrad Stanbury of Winnipeg, four frames to one, in the 11th heat of the Empire snooker tournament. The Canadian conceded 40 points to Goundrill in each frame.

Torchy Peden Not Retiring

NEW YORK (CP) — Torchy Peden, who had thoughts of retirement as far back as 1936, isn't going to quit the six-day bike race business for a while yet—at least not until it gets back some of the prosperity it enjoyed a few years back.

"Six-day bicycle racing has been good to me and I intend to do all I can to put it back on its feet again," Torchy said yesterday as he lolled around a hotel with brother Doug, recuperating from last week's race in which the Victoria brothers finished second.

And the way to get back the prosperity, in Torchy's opinion is to boost amateur riding, develop new stars and de-emphasize the need of international stars to provide the races with color.

That program is being advanced slowly, Torchy said. He told of new tracks being built, including ones of Delhi, Ont., and Victoria, and expressed belief "right now there are plenty of amateur riders in the United States and Canada good enough to turn pro."

TOP ATTRACTION

The Pedens, with Torchy staging a great comeback recently, at present are one of the top attractions in the circuit. Torchy, whose 34 victories give him more than any other one rider, gives credit for plenty of help to young Doug, with whom he has won six races.

"The big push Doug gives me has been a great help starting me off," Torchy said. "Because of my weight I had to pedal hard before I could get off to the start I get now from Doug."

The game still holds its lure for the redhead, one of the game's biggest stars for more than a decade. He doesn't think there's a sport that provides the thrills comparable to those in the last hours of a race. He would like to see some of the last-minute "oomph" put into the early days of the race as well.

BOXING

NEW YORK—Gunnar Barlund, 198¾, Finland, outpointed Henry Cooper, 189½, Brooklyn (10).

Hockey

Ross' All-time Team

BOSTON (CP)—Back-tracking over his two score and more years as player, referee and manager, the Boston Bruins' Art Ross today lined up his all-time, all-star hockey team which, he insisted, must include six centres, two wingers, two defencemen and a goalie.

"This team could play any kind of hockey, with six or seven men on a side and under any rules that have been made in the game's history," Ross said.

"My greatest wingers of all time are Tommy Phillips, who played about 30 years ago with Kenora Thistles, and Bill Cook, who ended his competitive career with the New York Rangers not so long ago.

"I believe that Eddie Shore of the Bruins and Hod Stuart, who performed for Montreal Wanderers around 1906, are the standout defencemen the game has produced, and our own Frankie Brimsek the greatest goalie of them all.

"That quintette, in my opinion, would be invincible with any of the following centres, Cyclone Taylor, Frank Nighbor, Syl Apps, the late Howie Morenz, Russell Bowie, an amateur who played for the Montreal Victorias at the start of the century, and the Bruins' Milt Schmidt.

"I have not attempted to rank the centres in order," he explained. "Every one of them would be able to step out with Phillips and Cook and be the greatest scoring line in hockey's history.

"And don't accuse me of being partizan because I have named Schmidt and Brimsek. Schmidt now is faster than Morenz was in his prime, and a much better hockey player, and Brimsek is by far the best goalie, despite the fact he has played but one season of major league hockey."

Shoreless Bruins Whip Toronto by Four Goals

Syd Howe of Detroit Red Wings picked up an assist last night as the Wings bowed 4 to 1 to New York Rangers to go into a three-way tie with Bob Davidson of Toronto Maple Leafs and Toe Blake of Montreal Canadiens among National Hockey League scoring leaders. Howe, Davidson and Blake are three points behind the league-leading Gordie Drillon of the Leafs, who has 11 points.

Mac Colville of Rangers entered the big seven by adding two assists against the Wings.

B.C. Girl Has Marks Accepted

HAMILTON, Ont. (CP)—The Olympic Games are a "dead issue" for the present, the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada was told yesterday by P. J. Mulqueen, chairman of the Canadian Olympic committee, after the only exciting moment in the first day of the union's annual convention.

Mr. Mulqueen said he had heard rumors of dissatisfaction with the work of the Olympic committee and mentioned in that connection the name of John Muter of Vancouver.

"If there is any person with a grievance, now would be a good time to get rid of it," he declared.

"I am surprised at the way this subject was broached," Mr. Muter said. "I have no grievance, but I must admit that the feeling all over Canada is that the Canadian Olympic committee is not functioning properly. They call meetings, get people to travel many hundreds of miles and then call it off."

Explaining the reason for canceling an Olympic committee meeting scheduled for yesterday, Mr. Mulqueen said: "In view of recent events, Olympics are at the present time a dead issue. No good purpose could be achieved with a war on for holding a meeting, and for that reason it was canceled."

The following track and field records, submitted by the records committee, were approved:

Senior open: 75 yards—Marion Borden, Powell River, B.C., 8.5 seconds, made July 1, 1939, at Powell River; 60 metres—Thelma Norris, Calgary, 7.6 seconds, September 4, 1939.

Senior native: 100 yards—Marion Borden, Powell River, B.C., 11 seconds, August 5, 1939, at Powell River.

Senior open and native: 110 metres — Larry O'Connor, Toronto, 14.8 seconds, August 2, 1939; shot put—Eric Coy, Winnipeg, 48 feet, 8½ inches, July 1, 1939.

Senior open and native (indoors): 500 yards — William Fritz, Queen's University, 1.00.8, made April 21, 1939, at Montreal; 440 yards—H. Purdie, Montreal, 56 seconds, April 21, 1939; 880 yards—Lloyd Cooke, McGill University, 2.6.5, made at Montreal, April 21, 1939.

Cage Fixtures Billed Tonight

Victoria and District Basketball League squads will journey out to Saanich tonight to meet in scheduled games in West Road Hall. These engagements were originally carded for the Saanich Agricultural Hall.

In the curtain-raiser at 7.30 Barons and Bombers, intermediate A teams, will meet. They are evenly-matched teams.

The second attraction of the evening will see Coach Axel Kinnear's Palm Dairy girls opposing Bob Whyte's Adverts. The final battle will bring together leading West Road and Quarter Cab in a senior B men's game.

While Palms are expected to take the fair-sex fixture they will undoubtedly find lots of opposition in the Adverts. The senior B men's scrap should be a keenly-contested affair, but as the Roaders are playing on their home floor they should check out on the long end of the score.

Howe Moves Up In Ice Scoring

Dizzy Dean To Be Worked Hard

CHICAGO (AP) — Dizzy Dean, whose $185,000 sore arm has been a baffling puzzle to the Chicago Cubs for two seasons, had his 1940 program outlined in one word yesterday: Work.

Owner P. K. Wrigley of the Cubs did the outlining. Convinced that Dean's injured arm is completely healed, Wrigley said the big right-handed pitcher would be expected to start pitching himself into shape as soon as the team goes to spring camp at Catalina Island next March.

Wrigley believes Dean, who was purchased from the St. Louis Cardinals in April of 1938 for $185,000 and three players, can win plenty of games "if he makes up his mind to begin from the bottom once more, follow instructions and get himself in shape to give his arm a fair trial."

Dean won six games and lost four last season and in 1938 won seven and lost one.

California Gets New Hockey Loop

SEATTLE (AP)—Pacific Coast Hockey League directors voted last night to start this season a round-robin competition with a circuit which is expected to be launched in California in mid-December.

Guy Patrick, owner of the Vancouver Lions, said after a meeting of the Coast League directors that the inter-league play this season would be with an eye to an enlarged six-team circuit for next year with northern and southern divisions.

Patrick said the new loop in the south would include San Francisco, Oakland and Sacramento teams, which would launch their schedule the middle of next month. He said the first north-south competition would not start until the first of the year, after the California teams had had a chance to "break the ice" in fast competition.

The northern loop includes Portland, Seattle and Vancouver.

Kilian and Vopel In German Army

CLEVELAND (AP) — Gustav Kilian and Heinz Vopel, one of the top six-day bicycle race teams in the business, will be out of circulation indefinitely.

They're in the army now—the German army—they informed Promoter Dick Deutsch yesterday by letter.

"The Fuehrer says 'no'," they replied with regrets to an invitation to participate in Cleveland's annual race starting Christmas Eve.

Ruins Fine Record of Turk Broda

Argument over Eddie Shore's hockey future took a new turn today after a demonstration by Boston Bruins that they can beat the strongest of National League opponents without the great defenceman.

Shore stayed in Springfield, tending his arena and International-American League hockey team while the world champion Bruins sped to a 6 to 2 victory over the league-leading Toronto Maple Leafs before 12,000 customers at Boston last night. The old cry of "We want Shore," that has rung through Boston Garden when he failed to appear before, was strangely missing.

Maybe the people realize that no matter how they shout Eddie is going to do his best to have his way. And the bald-headed Alberta grain farmer wants to stick in Springfield where his money is planted.

The Shoreless Bruins easily drove back their opponents of last season's Stanley Cup finals. With Eddie in there—and so far he is under agreement to play in Boston's home games after December 15—the Bruins may fly still higher.

CAIN SCORES TWICE

Herbie Cain, acquired from Montreal Canadiens this fall, scored twice for the Bruins in the first two periods against a goal by Murph Chamberlain of the Leafs. After that it was a rout until Chamberlain rallied the visitors by scoring the night's last goal with five minutes to play.

Roy Conacher, Milt Schmidt, Bobby Bauer and Gordon Pettinger scored in succession in the third period, blasting sky-high Turk Broda's great goal-tending record. Broda, with 13 against him, is now tied in the goals-against column with Dave Kerr of New York Rangers.

Kerr came close to a shutout as the Rangers scored a 4 to 1 success over Detroit Red Wings at New York in the night's other contest. With only three seconds to play in the second period, chubby Don Deacon whipped past him the counter that prevented a perfect night for the slender net-minder.

Neil Colville, aided as so often before by his brother Mac and Alex. Shibicky, gave the Rangers a lead after five minutes and they stayed ahead. Bryan Hextall scored in the second and Lynn Patrick and Shibicky nicked goals in the third.

The victory, scored before a meagre crowd of 8,358, left the Rangers in a three-way tie for fourth place with Chicago and Boston. Detroit could have risen from third position into a tie for first by winning.

Summaries follow:

RANGERS—DETROIT

First period—1, Rangers, N. Colville (M. Colville, Shibicky), 5.05. Penalties: Bowman, L. Patrick.

Second period—2, Rangers, Hextall (Watson), 1.24; 3, Detroit, Deacon (Howe, Liscombe), 19.57. Penalties: Heller, M. Patrick.

Third period—4, Rangers, L. Patrick (C. Smith, Shibicky), 6.20; 5, Rangers, Shibicky (M. Colville), 19.38. Penalty: Stewart.

BOSTON—TORONTO

First period—1, Boston, Cain (Jackson, Hollett), 13.12. Penalties: Hill, Chisholm.

Second period — 2, Toronto, Chamberlain (Horner), 2.59; 3, Boston, Cain (Pettinger, Portland), 6.43. Penalties: Cain, Heron, Kampman, Shewchuk, Metz.

Third period—4, Boston, Conacher (Cowley, Clapper), 1.10; 5, Boston, Schmidt (Hollett), 3.31; 6, Boston, Bauer, 4.47; 7, Boston, Pettinger (Jackson), 14.16; 8, Toronto, Chamberlain, 14.54. Penalty: Chamberlain.

Crime to Sing in Esquimalt Saddened Sailors Learn

By CROWNANANCHOR

A man of the navy telephoned the other day, and by the way he spoke I could tell he was annoyed. "Are you the man who has been writing about soldiers all the time?" he said. "Well for heaven's sake"—or words to that effect—"why don't you give the sailors a turn?"

"I suppose you know there's a navy?" he said with heavy sarcasm.

I admitted that in spite of the censors the news had leaked out that there was a navy and a naval station at a place called Esquimault, Esquimalt, Esquimaux, or something like that.

"Then why don't you write something about the navy for a change?" he demanded to know.

I told him for the simple reason that I knew a little about the army and soldiers but I knew nothing about sailors and ships.

"Yet you call yourself a reporter," he challenged. "Don't you think it is about time you learned?"

To cut a long story short he volunteered to teach me, to take me where we could meet navy men. Where else could we do that but Esquimalt? And although E. B. Andros nearly had his political head cut off by a similar remark, a sure place to find a sailor is a pub.

It was a very enjoyable evening, but I think it calls for an open letter addressed to Attorney-General Gordon Wismer of British Columbia.

It drew attention to some queer things about the B.C. liquor laws that must be absolutely incomprehensible to visitors, who don't understand that all they are designed for is that people shall sit in gloomy silence and drink gallons and gallons of beer without interruption for the social amenities that usually arise when friendly souls gather.

THEY WANTED TO SING

Having been at sea for a long time these British sailors wanted to chat with Canadians.

They have singers and entertainers in their midst and they wanted to be congenial and put on a show as if they were in an English pub.

It would be a terrible thing if these singing sailors should have to be put in prison for life for what may be permitted in other countries but for what in B.C. is a dastardly crime.

However, to start the open letter. It should read something like this:

"Dear Mr. Wismer:—

"In spite of what the censors won't tell you, British Columbia is taking part in the war. Keep it under your hat, Gordon, but when you see hundreds of sailors in town wearing an H.M.S. Blank ribbon on their hats nobody is supposed to know anything about it.

"But you ought to know, because when these sailors land from foreign ports they are eager for a little social life, to see new faces, to meet friends, to sing and make merry.

"Not to put too fine a point on it, they go to beer parlors and drink beer.

"It grieves me just as much as it will grieve you to know this, but it is a fact.

"Not being fully informed on the Canadian laws that set out that nothing — absolutely nothing — must be done to interrupt the serious business of beer drinking, they have a foolish notion that they can chat and sing and be convivial and make friends with the Canadian customers.

SHOCKING

"Some of them go to sailors' homes, but most of them drift to the Esquimalt pubs. That's terrible. I know you will be shocked, as much as I am, but it is a fact that has to be faced.

"Coming from Plymouth, London, Oldham and other English cities, they don't understand our ways.

"One of them—Tubby they call him—was guilty of a criminal offence as soon as he walked into the parlor. Smiling and guileless, absolutely heedless of the crime he was committing, he walked up to the counter and ordered a drink just as he would in a Yorkshire bar.

"The customers shuddered in apprehension.

"People explained to Tubby that it was lawful to sit down and have a drink brought to you, but it was a criminal offence to walk up to a bar.

" 'This is a strange, mysterious country,' he said as he shook his head in bewilderment and tried to figure it out. 'Twelve years in the navy but I've never met such a queer law as that.'

"He didn't let it get him down though. After a few minutes he was smiling again.

"Tubby has a pal called Ernie. He's the comedian of the ship. He gets a big kick out of life.

" 'Why shouldn't I?' he says. 'I'm a bachelor. I've got a pension for long service, and when the war's over I go back to the good job I left when they called me up for the war.'

"He likes to express himself in song and story. He did it in the beer parlor, the penalty for which, I believe, is imprisonment for life under British Columbia's L.C.B. laws.

TENSION WAS TERRIFIC

"The tension was terrific when he burst into song.

"Tubby beamed with the pride of a master of ceremonies producing a star turn, but the crowd was in fear and trembling as they saw another criminal offence being committed.

"The waiters and proprietors were plainly worried, but as Ernie sang the crowd warmed up to his music. They laughed and clapped and called for more.

"It would have taken more than a waiter or two and a worried proprietor to do anything about it, as the crowd had been won over by the sailors and seemed to think it was a great idea.

"They laughed and clapped and called for more.

"Ernie sang again.

"Tubby, in a lilting tenor, sang about home and mother.

"Ernie gave an impersonation of Hitler that brought the house down. He combed his forelock on his forehead, pursed a piece of paper against his nose for a Hitler mustache and gave an oration in what passed for German in the Hitler style that won two encores.

"The Canadians seemed to enjoy this impromptu concert the British sailors put on. They applauded and encouraged them. They enjoyed mixing with them.

"A lady who came from Oldham found a sailor who came from Oldham and they immediately arranged for a home-town reunion party.

"Other members of the party met sailors from their home towns and they all became friendly.

"Wackie—it's a queer name but that's what they called him—sang a song, a song they sing aboard evidently, because he censored a lot of it as he sang it. Then Ernie sang another and did an impersonation of one goldfish, two goldfish and three goldfish that was a hilarious bit of pantomiming.

"Then a policeman walked in.

"Not knowing Esquimalt very well and having had nothing to do with police there up to present I thought it was an admiral, his uniform was so magnificent.

"The sailors were very impressed.

A DIPLOMAT

"I don't want to say anything against this policeman. He seemed a perfect man for the job. He sized up the situation at a glance and didn't throw his weight around in a manner that might have started a riot.

"I don't know what he said, but evidently he explained that this might all be good fun in some countries, but the Canadian liquor laws were designed so that people could keep their minds on drinking great quantities of beer in gloomy and determined silence and no distractions were permitted.

"In any event he did his job well.

"Silence came over the company.

"The sailors looked puzzled and disappointed.

"In 15 minutes or so they left, bewildered over laws to them that seemed so queer.

THERE'S A WAR ON

"The point, however, is this, Mr. Wismer. We have arrived at it at last. There's a war on. The censors admit that. It was even discussed in the Legislature by a lady—Steeves I believe her name is. This being the case, there may be quite a few sailors in port. Maybe there will be other occasions when they want to sing and entertain.

"Maybe the Canadian people will encourage them.

"It is going to be tough for the sailors, tough for the local people who encourage them, and particularly tough for the beer parlor proprietors and the policemen, no matter if they are all as diplomatic as the one in the admiral's uniform, if this is all to come under the head of crime as specified in the British Columbia liquor laws.

"Would it be too much to ask that a regulation could be passed which would relax this rule that says nothing shall be permitted to interfere with the serious business of drinking, which must only be done in prolonged and deadly silence, and let the sailors sing and mingle with the people?"

"Yours hopefully,

"CROWNANANCHOR."

Letters to the Editor

INVASION IN REALITY

To the Editor:—A friend who has been recently around by Galiano Island informs me of a strange situation.

A considerable fleet of armed Japanese fishing boats had invaded the island and driven the residents off their land, set up a fish-curing factory and ordered all white men to keep off!

My friend told me that he and his party had to make a detour of some miles to avoid being shot at.

The residents appealed to the provincial police who came at once. When they arrived, the Japs, who had kept a good look out, had disappeared with their guns into the bush.

As all fisheries are under the control of the federal government, the police could see nothing they could interfere with.

What are these unfortunate people to do? Surely the naval authorities at Esquimalt should see that no armed aliens should interefere with British subjects.

No one knows the number of Japs in British Columbia today, but every year they are increasing.

The immigration authorities know nothing about it.

In Japan no foreigner is permitted to own one foot of land. Here they are allowed to do as they like. They own land, factories, mines and nearly all the fisheries. Licenses are granted to white men, "nominally," but the Japs in reality.

As the Japs breed rapidly, not practicing birth control, they will increase like the rabbit in Australia, and if the C.C.F. get them the vote it is quite within the range of possibility to see a little yellow fellow sitting in the seat of the Premier of British Columbia.

When a forest fire first starts, it is easily extinguished. If not dealt with promptly it gets beyond control. Verbum Sapuntia.

RIP VAN WINKLEISM

To the Editor:—A few days ago a certain prominent member of the Legislature was accused by another member of not having had a new idea for 40 years, of being a sort of "Rip van Winkle."

This morning while eating my cracked wheat I concluded that the assembly is packed with Rip van Winkles. The sack containing our cracked wheat is marked three pounds; cost 20 cents. While the farmer here gets around 60 cents per bushel, the retailer, by cracking and selling in small sacks, receives almost $4. If the grain is No. 1 from the prairies there would be a slight difference. Other foods such as cornflakes and bran show similar, if not greater, discrepancies.

Isn't it absurd and cruel that people on relief, the underprivileged and the small-salaried, who must buy in small quantities, are the victims of such economic stupidity?

If our Legislature contains more than one "Rip van Winkle," I ask how did they get there? The only logical conclusion is that for every one in the House there are thousands outside who put them there.

Some prominent citizens look upon Darwinism, agnosticism and Socialism as crimes. I contend that economic illiteracy is the world's greatest stumbling block today. Rip van Winkleism must go. Its conqueror is free speech, free assembly and a free press.

A FASCIST SPEECH

To the Editor:—Before this new world order of nonmilitary Fascism can eventually be established, is it necessary to destroy those things that the British Empire is said to be fighting for, freedom of speech, integrity of parliamentary rules, human dignity, etc.

Mr. Anscomb, by his recent speech, brings freedom of utterance into disrepute, breaks parliamentary rules, and so on.

All this sort of propaganda takes time, but Rome wasn't built in a day.

IN DEFENCE OF C.C.F.

To the Editor:—Would you allow me space to reply concerning the C.C.F. "Defeatist Policy," but first permit me to ask a few questions: Are you in favor of individual capitalism making soldiers out of the pick of each generation of Canadian boys? Do you stand with both hands up for the capitalistic democracy policy of putting to sleep a proportion of the population in order that others may live? Do you agree with me when I say that unemployment is due to the breakdown of the system of distribution? Does social legislation represent abandonment of the "laissez faire" policy? Is it true that wealth must be produced before it can be distributed? What is the matter that today our warehouses and elevators are filled yet many people are today eating insufficiently?

Present conditions are not the fault of anything else but the haphazard economic system under which we live. Callous, diabolical, wicked men of course do not help the situation. Consider what would happen if social charity did not help out this present economic system. The test of any economic system is the food supply of its people. So is it any wonder that C.C.F-ers rebel against the false theory of "laissez faire" which is sinking us deeper in despair?

TALBOT KIRKPATRICK.
Rodney, Ont.

C.C.F. INDISCRETIONS

To the Editor:—The indiscretions of Mrs. Steeves, Harold Winch and Colin Cameron with regard to the war have earned high praise from the Communist and near-Communist groups that cluster around any highly articulate group.

A few months ago these groups were damning Chamberlain for not "fighting for democracy," now, they are sounding their harsh notes condemning him for "fighting."

In order to show this crowd up in their true light, I am quoting the words of Arthur Pollitt, who up to very recently was the brains and driving force of the British Communist Party. Mr. Pollitt wrote a pamphlet, published on September 14, 1939. Here is an excerpt:

"The Communist Party supports the war, believing it to be a just war which should be supported by the whole working class and all friends of democracy . . . To stand aside from this conflict to contribute only revolutionary-sounding phrases while the Fascist beasts ride roughshod over Europe would be a betrayal of everything our forbears have fought to achieve in the course of long years of struggle with capitalism.

". . . The British workers are in this war to defeat Hitler, for a German victory would mean that Fascism would be imposed on the defeated countries. If there is one thing certain, it is this, that the British working class detests Fascism, as it does those who in Britain have helped to strengthen it, and is determined to do everything in its power to bring about the defeat of Fascism and that of its supporters in Britain. Therefore, it will do everything it can to bring the war to a speedy conclusion, but only by the defeat and destruction of Hitler and the Nazi rule from which the German people have been suffering for six years."

Mrs. Steeves and her supporters notwithstanding, so say a vast number of folks, including a lot of C.C.F'ers.

JAMES EASTWOOD.

WHENCE THE THREAT?

To the Editor:—Would the most immediate threat to local democracy appear to emanate from Europe or from just across the bay?

What immediate steps, if any, are being taken to secure the power of recall for the use of the electors?

Regardless of ancestry, just how many of our representatives were actually born and brought up within the Dominion of Canada and are, strictly speaking, entitled to speak as Canadians for Canada?

Considering recent events and recriminations would not the best future policy be that of demanding that every candidate submitted to the electors be a person born and raised in Canada?

Further, while realizing the extreme gravity of the situation confronting us in the outer world and fully aware that nothing short of our best effort must be exerted, must we not eschew any and every vestige of the sentimental emotionalism and hysterical frenzy that defeats its own ends by the disgust it arouses?

Realizing the fact that our youth is anxious and ready to serve Canada and through Canada the Empire, must we not inevitably come to the conclusion that service will be most enthusiastically given if given freely and not because of edicts, coercive or unduly persuasive tactics (particularly by persons not native or themselves unable to undertake active overseas service) which might from their inception serve to breed the suspicion that far too many of the older generation have one foot planted firmly in Europe and the other placed lightly on a banana peel in Canada?

Would it not, from the very start, be better to strive for a united national effort "of Canadians, by Canadians, for Canada and the Empire" than to court future trouble by petty squabbling and the use of tactics usually employed by the common enemy?

M. MILLER.
Sidney, B.C.

IN TROUBLOUS TIMES

To the Editor:—In these times of trouble, when Canada is at war with the ruthless, anti-Christian Hitler regime, it is best for true Canadians, lovers of British justice and freedom and believers in Christian faith, not to say anything to discourage, retard or blast the faith of the Canadian people. For this is no time for arguments of past misfortunes and mistakes.

Let every man, woman and child fight to the finish the devilish onslaughts of the merciless god of Wotan and paganism.

JOHN SUNISLOW.
974 Balmoral.

WORKS BOTH WAYS

To the Editor: — Col. Lindbergh asks: Have we the right to draw the U.S.A. into war? Singly because we prefer the crown of England to American independence? Surely he is not hinting Americans have no will of their own in a matter so vital as going to war? I think they have and will make their decisions without our help, regardless of Col. Lindbergh's insinuations. As for preferring the crown of England to the independence of America, did he ever hear of Canadian independence? As for the question of Canada being attacked, in which the colonel states the U.S. would have to defend us, does not this work both ways? Does he think that we, as Canadians, would not fight for America if the shoe was on the other foot? And is not the blood of Canadians just as precious as the blood of any other people?

T. J. INKPEN.
2909 Scott St.

ANTI-IMPERIALIST

To the Editor:—Though Mrs. Steeves does not like war, she herself is mentally warring against the British Empire. It sounds like another Lindbergh. It seems to be the word "Empire" that irritates her so much.

One gets so tired of hearing the "talk, talk, talk" of mere politicians.

Girl Hit By Auto

Eight-year-old Jean Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, 593 John Street, suffered injuries when she was knocked down by a car this morning on Gorge Road at Manchester Road. The car, going east on Gorge Road, was driven by John Carlis, 2838 Wyndcliff Avenue.

It is thought the girl ran from in front of a parked bus into the path of the oncoming car. The car knocked her about 25 feet. Constable Alec Briggs and Sam McKenzie of the City Police force attended with the patrol car and took the child home.

There she was examined by Dr. W. H. Moore, who ordered her to St. Joseph's Hospital, where she is under observation. She is reported to have sustained a bruised hip and was being examined for other injuries today.

The First Cathedral Scouts monthly card party will be held Monday evening next, at the home of Mrs. Warner, 708 Suffolk Street, at 8.

TOWN TOPICS

Dr. T. Marshall Morsey, noted Bible teacher, will speak in the Christian and Missionary Alliance Tabernacle, Yates Street, tonight at 8.

James Cairney and Clyde Crossley appeared before Magistrate Henry C. Hall in city police court this morning on charges of breaking and entering and theft and were remanded to secure counsel. They were arrested by city police at 1.15 this morning.

Mrs. Marion J. Ord of the Victoria School of Expression announced today she had declined the invitation of Sir Ernest McMillan to go to Toronto and take charge of the elocution department at the Toronto Conservatory of Music.

Prosecutions of parties allegedly concerned in the Okanagan fruit combine found by federal investigators probably will be launched next week, Attorney-General Wismer said today. Mr. Wismer declined to reveal at this stage who will be prosecuted.

Householders are advised that persons offering for sale artificial flowers on behalf of the Red Cross Society are unauthorized. The secretary states no person can solicit in the name of the Red Cross unless in possession of an authorized permit, issued by the society.

The Sidney and North Saanich unit of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society, with headquarters in Sidney, has collected to date, under the leadership of P. J. Baker, president, and C. C. Cochran, treasurer, $938.28 for the national campaign of the society.

A woman living on Fort Street yesterday sent a complaint to city police that the children next door were eating scraps out of her garbage can. She wished police to caution the children of the danger in doing this, as the city rat catcher had placed rat poison in the garbage can.

A claim against the city and school board for damages arising out of the injury of Catherine Skinner, 1804 Cook Street, while playing soccer at Central Junior High School, will be made by their solicitors. Notice of the claim has been filed at the City Hall. Payment of a $10 hospital bill, $15 for a wheel chair and general damages will be sought. The matter will be considered by the city solicitor and reported on to the council.

Tomorrow, St. Andrew's Day, there will be special services in St. John's Church, with Holy Communion at 10.30. This service will be attended by members of the women's auxiliary for their corporate communion. A special prayer will be offered for the missionary work of the church. In the evening at 7.30 there will be a special service of intercession. Services will be conducted by the rector, Canon F. A. D. Chadwick.

Pioneer Strike Becomes Issue

The Pioneer Mine strike, which has closed down one of the province's leading gold producers for two months, loomed today as a critical issue for the government just as the Legislature was getting ready to prorogue.

To counter circulars distributed by union men among members of the House claiming they were unjustly prosecuted, Dr. Howard T. James, manager, and A. E. Bull, director, of the mine, this morning met members of the government and presented their side of the case.

"There have been many rumors going around about this and we came here to tell the government what we know about it," Dr. James said.

He said the company at present has nothing to announce on reports it will attempt to reopen the mine.

Dr. James was asked if the company had asked the government to supply it with a sufficient police force to recommence operations, but said this was not the case.

Attorney-General Wismer, who with other members of the cabinet met the company representatives, said the government was not taking sides in the case. So far as police protection was concerned, the government's only interest was to see that law and order were preserved, he said.

Preview Audience Enjoys Air Film

Alexander Korda's great epic of the present war, "The Lion Has Wings," showed this morning at the Capitol Theatre to a preview audience that mildly booed pictures of Hitler and cheered and applauded King George and Queen Elizabeth as they sang "Under the Spreading Chestnut Tree" with a group of Boy Scouts.

His Honor the Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. E. W. Hamber, attended by A. M. D. Fairbairn and Mrs. Mae Rice, headed the list of guests who saw the picture. Others invited were Capt. V. G. Brodeur, officer commanding the western naval base; Air Commodore E. A. Godfrey, commanding the western air command; Brigadier J. C. Stewart, commanding officer at Work Point; Premier Pattullo and members of the Legislature and Mayor McGavin and members of the City Council, bishops of the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches, presidents of the service clubs and heads of women's organizations

MANY UNIFORMS

The theatre was filled with men in uniform—sailors, soldiers and air force men.

"A wonderful picture portraying the defence of Great Britain," Air Commodore Godfrey said.

"A magnificent picture—I thoroughly enjoyed it," His Honor told John M. Robertson, manager of the Capitol.

"The Lion Has Wings," which Their Majesties saw in London a few weeks ago—the first picture they had attended since the outbreak of war—covers events leading up to the fateful noon of September 3. It compares conditions in marching Germany, with peaceful scenes in England, where, the commentator says, the people did not want war, but were forced into it by the ambitions of one man.

Some of the most interesting scenes show workmen in the great aircraft factories of Britain, where war planes are being manufactured. "This is the strength of the nation—bullets, guns, shells"—says the commentator. How Britain is defended in the air against the enemy is magnificently shown, as the audience is taken into the various control and chart rooms of the Air Ministry.

The most epic scene of the picture shows Britain's Royal Air Force men — young, handsome, eager—flying over the Kiel Canal and dropping bombs on German battleships.

Giving orders for the flight, the commander tells his men a hospital is located at a certain place, and "this must be avoided at all costs."

The picture vividly portrays the grit and determination of the people of England to see that peace shall again prevail in the world. It shows how the common people of England received the news that England was at war.

There are many thrilling shots of modern fighter aircraft high in the clouds, twisting and turning, searching out the enemy and fighting with the most modern equipment.

More a review than a story, it has, nevertheless, romantic interest, with Merle Oberon and Ralph Richardson playing the leading roles.

JUMPED FROM ONE WAR INTO ANOTHER

"I jumped out of one war right into another," said S. Mason of the Union Insurance Society of Canton, who is at the Empress Hotel today awaiting passage to China.

"I was in Hankow when the Japanese captured the Chinese city, and I then traveled to London by way of South Africa, only to find Europe in the grip of war." Mr. and Mrs. Mason endured the uncertainty and blackouts in England for a time and then suddenly ended their furlough and crossed the Atlantic by the first ship on which they could secure accommodation.

When they arrived in Victoria they found that the liner on which they had booked passage across the Pacific had been taken over for "other service."

"We are lucky to be held up in Victoria," they said in resigning themselves to the prospect of waiting for another ship bound to China.

Legal authority for the provincial forest branch to administer provincial parks is contained in an amendment to the Forest Act put before the Legislature by Hon. A. Wells Gray, Minister of Lands. Garibaldi Park which is administered by a special board, is exempted from the bill, as well as Strathcona and Robson Parks, which are handled under special statutes.

LINDSEY — Private funeral services for Fred Edward Lindsey were held in Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel yesterday afternoon and cremation took place at the Royal Oak Crematorium.

Obituaries

'BURR' HENDERSON DIES IN HOSPITAL

William Stuart (Burr) Henderson, elder son of Stuart Henderson, K.C., and Mrs. Henderson of 1007 Linden Avenue, died this morning at Royal Jubilee Hospital, where he had been suffering from a heart complaint for the last three weeks.

He was born in Ashcroft, B.C., 33 years ago and came with his parents to Victoria at the age of one, receiving his education in the city schools. He was a former member of the 16th Canadian Scottish, a keen rugby player and a member of the Uplands Golf Club until a heart affection developed following a serious illness about 10 years ago, curtailing his activities.

He is survived by his parents; three sisters, Mrs. Iva McPhee and the Misses Wilma and Ena, and one brother, Gordon, all in Victoria.

Funeral services will be held at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel on Friday afternoon, at 3.15, followed by interment in Royal Oak.

BRAGG—Funeral services were held in McCall Bros.' Funeral Home yesterday afternoon for Alfred Bragg. Rev. Dr. J. B. Rowell, assisted by H. Masters, conducted the services. The following were honorary pallbearers: E. Hodges, A. Hickling, H. Creed, W. H. Brown, G. Clarke and N. Hendrick. Active pallbearers were: A. Shiner, A. Bird, J. Reist, G. McCarthy, B. Williams and H. Sheepwash. Rev. C. W. Serle conducted the services at the graveside in Shady Creek Cemetery.

SACKVILLE — Miss Emma Sackville died on Monday aged 61 years. Born in Bewdly, Ont., she had been a resident of this city for 10 years. There survive two brothers, E. C. Sackville at Swift Current, Sask., and J. P. Sackville at Edmonton, Alta. The remains are resting at the Sands Mortuary Ltd. and funeral arrangements will be announced later.

SLEIGHT—Mrs. Alice Sleight, widow of John V. Sleight, died yesterday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. Hutchings, 1018 Monterey Avenue, Oak Bay, aged 76 years. Mrs. Sleight was born in England and had been a resident of Tisdale, Sask., for many years until coming to this city 18 months ago. She is survived by one son, Ernest, in England; and four daughters, Mrs. A. Sauder, Tisdale, Sask.; Mrs. F. Stevens, San Diego, Cal.; Mrs. W. Evans, Grimsby, England, and Mrs. L. Hutchings, of this city. The remains were forwarded by Hayward's B.C. Funeral Co.'s chapel this afternoon to Tisdale, Sask., for funeral services and interment in the family plot.

BAILEY — Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Ada Clara Bailey. Rev. Dr. Andrew Reid conducted services. Interment was in the family plot in the Naval Cemetery, Esquimalt. The following acted as pallbearers: L. Flint, B. Tallack, A. Goodwin, W. E. McIntyre, J. L. Hunter and R. G. Thomson. S. J. Curry and Son had charge of arrangements.

ZARELLI—Mrs. Rosario Zarelli died this morning in St. Joseph's Hospital aged 77 years. Mrs. Zarelli was born in Italy and had resided in Victoria for 50 years. She leaves her widower Tony Zarelli of 1154 Johnson Street, two sons, Duncan of Olympia Wash., and Gilbert, Victoria; one daughter, Mrs. J. Paine of Saanich; two brothers in Tacoma and one in Prince Rupert; and two grandchildren. Funeral services will be held at McCall Brothers Funeral Home on Saturday afternoon at 2.30. Interment will be in the Colwood Burial Park.

BULLOCK—Miss Ruby Helen Bullock, aged 28 years, died at the Jubilee Hospital yesterday. She was the daughter of Mrs. Ellen Bullock and the late George Bullock of 1618 Richmond Avenue. Born in England she had been a resident of this city for 20 years, and for three years was employed in the admitting office of the Jubilee Hospital. She is mourned by her mother in Victoria and one brother in St. Catherines, Ontario. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon from St. Mary's Church, Oak Bay, at 3. Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunns will conduct the service, after which interment will be in Colwood Burial Park. McCall Bros. have charge of the arrangements.

Sister Mary Florentius, 72, stationed at St. Ann's Convent, New Westminster, for 45 years, died in hospital there following a brief illness.

She was born in Oswego, N.Y., came to B.C. two years after joining the order.

Sister Mary Theodore of Victoria, author of several historical books on British Columbia, is a cousin.

Extra Licensing Power for City

Victoria City Council will be given power to increase trades licenses on firms who take orders for work that is done outside the city.

This will be conferred under an amendment to the special Victoria City Act brought down in the Legislature by Hon. A. Wells Gray, Minister of Municipal Affairs.

A maximum license fee of $150 every six months is permitted by the bill. Firms which take orders in the city but do their work in one of the surrounding municipalities are exempt.

The bill, it is stated, is partly aimed at cleaning and dyeing firms which take orders in offices here but send the clothes to Vancouver to be cleaned. They now pay a small license for their office, but under the new measure will have to pay a full trades license fee.

The bill also gives the council power to refuse by unanimous vote any application for a trades license.

It allows the city to mimeograph its voters' list and provides that in cases of by-elections for the council nominations and voting shall be on Thursdays a week apart.

LIQUOR STORE IN ESQUIMALT ROBBED

Esquimalt police today were seeking the identity of persons who broke into the Esquimalt Government Liquor Store early this morning and stole a large quantity of liquor.

Police reported that entrance to the liquor store had been gained by smashing a plate-glass window in the front. The robbery was committed between 2.15 and 7.45.

The same store was broken into about a month ago.

Bernard Rodin, trance medium of London, England, who is on a world tour, will be in the Sons of England Hall this evening at 7.45.

Logger Killed Eating His Lunch

Max Kechik, 40, a logger, was killed at the Campbell River Timber Company's camp today, according to a dispatch to divisional headquarters of the B.C. Police here today. Kechik was sitting under a windfall eating his lunch when a tree fell and killed him instantly.

He is survived by a wife and two children residing at Lochdale, B.C., near New Westminster.

An inquest will be held at Campbell River at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

MEDICAL STORY AT CAPITOL

Dorothy Lamour, Akim Tamiroff, and John Howard share top dramatic honors in "Disputed Passage," an exciting story about the problems of medical men, which is scheduled to open today at the Capitol Theatre. Based on Lloyd C. Douglas' best-selling novel, it asks the dramatic question: Will marriage interfere with the career of a promising young surgeon? To which Lloyd Douglas answers that there is a power higher than anything which is learned in the laboratory! In her first genuinely dramatic role, Miss Lamour plays a young girl brought up in China who comes to this continent to make her home. Her vital love for Howard, who portrays the brilliant young surgeon, runs afoul of Akim Tamiroff, a world-famous neurological surgeon, who believes in the stern dedication of a physician's life to science.

STELLAR TRIO IN ATLAS PICTURE

Myrna Loy, Tyrone Power and George Brent bring the three leading characters of the great novel to life in Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Rains Came," by Louis Bromfield, which opens tomorrow at the Atlas Theatre.

Myrna plays the amorous Lady Esketh; Power is seen as the romantic Major Safti; and Brent is cast as the world-weary Tom Ransome.

Brenda Joyce, star-maker Zanuck's newest discovery, heads a great supporting cast as Fern Simon.

SHOWBOAT TROUPE TO TOUR ISLAND

Starting a series of concerts on Vancouver Island, Bert White's Showboat Concert Party, which recently was given enthusiastic receptions by the troops at Otter Point and the children at the Solarium, will present a show at Sooke Community Hall, Friday, December 8.

Mr. White includes some of Victoria's most talented performers in his company, and will present a well varied bright program followed by a dance.

DOMINION THEATRE

Brussels, Belgium, just prior to the World War, and during the period the German military machine dominated that city, is the background of RKO Radio's dramatic picturization of the case of the famous English martyr, "Nurse Edith Cavell," now being shown at the Dominion Theatre.

Anna Neagle plays the title role in this Herbert Wilcox production, which depicts the great humanitarian's activities in her Brussels nursing home. Her patriotic work in helping to smuggle convalescents and war prisoners across the Dutch border, and her subsequent trial before a Prussian court, are also vividly disclosed in the poignant saga.

'Lion Has Wings' Opens Saturday

Revealed for the first time on the screen in Alexander Korda's "The Lion Has Wings" is England's famous "Central Control Room," from which all aerial war manoeuvres are directed. The room, which may be said to be one of the focal points in England's war with Germany, is equipped with two giant maps of the military terrain on which all plane positions, including those of the enemy, are plotted. Military experts radio directions to planes in action from glass-enclosed compartments in this room. "The Lion Has Wings," which will open at the Capitol Theatre on Saturday, features in its cast Merle Oberon, Ralph Richardson, June Duprez and Derrick DeMarney, and dramatizes the behind-the-scenes story of the Royal Air Force in Europe's new World War. It is being released in Canada through United Artists.

PLAZA THEATRE

Claudette Colbert declares her independence and runs off incognito to New York while her irate father orders Pinkerton's "picked" to bring home the bad little rich girl in Columbia's romantic comedy-drama, "It Happened One Night," now showing at the Plaza Theatre. Clark Gable meets Claudette on her way to New York and their ensuing romance makes for a grand morsel of screen entertainment.

CADET THEATRE

"Pygmalion," film adaption of the famous stage success by Bernard Shaw, which is now at the Cadet Theatre, won the Volpi Cup award following its showing at the International Film Festival in Venice. The award was made to Leslie Howard for his interpretation of the professor of phonetics in the Shaw comedy.

OAK BAY THEATRE

Joel McCrea and Andrea Leeds are romantically teamed in "They Shall Have Music," Samuel Goldwyn's new production which brings Jascha Heifetz, the great violinist, to the screen for the first time and is now playing an engagement at the Oak Bay Theatre through United Artists release.

SUNK BY RAIDER—The picture shows the P. and O. steamship Rawalpindi, sunk last Thursday southeast of Iceland by two German armed raiders, as she was entering the Suez Canal on one of her trips before the outbreak of war. The Rawalpindi fought bravely against overwhelming odds of two raiders, one being the pocket battleship Deutschland. Estimates placed the loss of life aboard the Rawalpindi at 280.

Form Company to Operate Beulah

Refitted for ocean service, Ms. Beulah, which sank at the Ogden Point docks in December, 1937, and raised after months of persistent salvage effort, will shortly enter the trans-Pacific trade. She will be operated by the all-British Columbia owned transportation company, the Westport Shipping Company Limited, the directors of which include A. C. Burdick, president of the Pacific Salvage Company, Victoria; Capt. William M. Crawford, president of the Empire Stevedoring Company and A. B. Graham of Vancouver.

The company was incorporated in Victoria yesterday. The Beulah, it was stated by officials of the company today, will retain her name and also Panamanian registry. Formerly engaged in the South Seas trade, she may yet return to that route, although her initial voyage will be to Burma.

A former sailing vessel of steel construction, the Buelah is of 1,500 tons register driven by auxiliary Diesel engines.

Her full cargo load is approximately 2,000 tons. Caught in a gale in the straits of Juan de Fuca late in December, 1937, the vessel, badly listed, limped back to Victoria and sank shortly after being moored in the outer harbor.

She was refloated, and following Admiralty court action became the property of the Pacific Salvage Company, which has now transferred the vessel to the newly-incorporated operating company.

SEATTLE ASKS FOR 'REEFER' TONNAGE

SEATTLE (AP)—Port Commissioner J. A. Earley said yesterday a meeting of shippers and railroad executives would be called late this week to urge the U.S. Maritime Commission to assign idle east coast ships to the Oriental trade.

Earley said the action was decided upon after shippers from as far east as Chicago sent inquiries about shipping conditions since notification last week of withdrawal of two Canadian Pacific liners for "other service."

Withdrawal of the two liners left Puget Sound ports without ships with needed refrigerator space, the commissioner said.

Exchange Regulations Govern Fish Exports

OTTAWA (CP)—The Foreign Exchange Control Board has issued special regulations to facilitate export shipments in the fish trade by individual fishermen.

The new regulations provide alternative arrangements for export of fish. The fishermen, in the first instance, may complete the necessary "Form B" required by the board and receive payment direct from the purchaser in the United States.

This arrangement, however, is only permitted when each shipment is accompanied by an export license, naming a Canadian branch bank through which the settlement must be made in U.S. dollars, which must be sold immediately to the bank.

The transportation companies have been forbidden to accept shipments for export unless accompanied by the license form, excepting only where the board has made an exemption.

The alternative allows the fishermen to ship by licensed carrier, without preparing export papers, but payment will not be received direct.

Greeks Desert Ship

NEW YORK (AP)—Customs, immigration and police officers guarded and escorted a Greek freighter out of the harbor late yesterday after receiving reports seven of the crew had jumped ship and that others were plotting to do likewise.

The name of the ship, the nature of its cargo and its destination were not disclosed.

J. J. Behan, whose appointment as superintendent of car service for Canadian National Railways in the west, was announced this week.

Harbor Plant Busy Overhauling Craft

One of the busiest of the smaller boat construction and repair plants in Victoria harbor is the Victoria Motor Boat and Repair Works on Bay Street.

The firm at the present time is working on Ms. Solander and Wolny, owned by the Nitinat Logging Co.

Solander is getting extensive repairs and general overhaul and the Wolny is being overhauled. The vessels will be on the ways here for some days.

Coast Light Out

Mariners are advised that the light on Cyril Rock, Beacon, Malaspina Strait, Gulf of Georgia, B.C., is reported not burning. It will be relighted at the earliest opportunity, A. W. R. Wilby, agent, Department of Transport, announces.

Anderson to Lecture

Capt. John Anderson, former American Mail Line officer, who navigated the Chinese junk Tai Ping from Shanghai across the Pacific, only to meet disaster off the Vancouver Island coast, plans to lecture on his experiences while his craft is being repaired. As a preliminary, he is removing his luxurious red beard, over the protests of his Russian-born wife.

Capt. Anderson expects to return to Vancouver with the Tai Ping from Ocean Falls around December 13, and will probably visit Victoria before he sets out to complete his world-girdling voyage.

Lumber Is Moving

A million and a half feet of lumber is going over the Ogden Point docks today, giving work to several gangs of local longshoremen.

More bottoms are available now and the indications are that lumber from Vancouver Island mills will move forward more steadily in the future.

6 FISHERMEN OF VICTORIA FINED

BELLINGHAM, Wash. (AP)—Six Canadian fishermen were fined $100 each in superior court here yesterday on charges of illegally fishing in United States waters in Haro Strait, off San Juan Island. Because they pleaded guilty their three power boats, held here, will not be confiscated, the state's attorney agreed.

The Canadians were arrested last Friday after being sighted by a fisheries department seaplane, officers testified.

They are Frank Thomas, Axel Gardin, Dave Miller, Frank Bailey, all of Victoria, and Elmer Joe and Ned Williams, Indians, living on Discovery Island. All face deportation proceedings.

Bremen's Engines Reported Damaged

LONDON (CP) — A neutral naval officer who has just arrived in Great Britain, said the German liner Bremen seriously damaged its engines in its dash to the Soviet Arctic port of Murmansk, just after the outbreak of war. At least 50 German ships, including the liner New York and two loaded oil tankers, now are immobilized at Murmansk, he said.

Trawler Survivors Adrift 38 Hours

LONDON (CP) — A vivid tale of 38 hours in an open boat after their fishing trawler had been sunk by a U-boat was told by a survivor today.

"We were fishing northwest of Ireland when the submarine appeared and fired a warning shot," he said. "She came very close and her captain shouted to abandon ship. We hoisted out our two 20-foot lifeboats. The skipper and four hands went in one boat. I was in the other with five others.

"The boats were provided with lugsails. I didn't hoist mine as I thought the weather was too bad. I saw the other boat make sail and that was the last we saw of our shipmates. As we got clear the U-boat men laughed at us.

"Soon after leaving our ship we saw another trawler sunk and later passed a lifeboat with 13 men in it. We waved but did not get within hailing distance.

"The weather was very bad. We had to bail incessantly and several times I thought the boat was going under. We had a keg of fresh water and some biscuits but no lantern and no compass. Two of the men collapsed before we made land after 38 hours in the open boat in a southwesterly gale."

Wheat

WINNIPEG (CP)—Good commission house and domestic mill buying, together with light offerings, boosted wheat futures prices 1 to 1¼ cents in active trading on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. December wheat finished at 73⅝, May 78⅛ to 78¼, and July 79⅝ to 79½.

Observers estimated buying by domestic mills represented a 600,000-bushel business in Canadian flour.

Foreign sales of Canadian wheat fell off following yesterday's bumper business, with overseas sales placed at 400,000 bushels for the day.

In the cash wheat market all offerings of the lower grades were taken in a general buying splurge. In addition, mills were credited with fair purchases of No. 2, 3 and 4 northern.

Ooats and barley were given excellent support by export interest in the coarse grain pit, while southern houses bought substantial amounts of rye. Crusher buying brought good gains to flax.

Damages Refused For Flying Fatality

TORONTO (CP)—Action for damages against the Stinson Aircraft Corporation of Wayne, Mich., brought by Mrs. Jane McCoy, widow of Pilot John Henry McCoy, was dismissed without costs in Assize Court yesterday by Mr. Justice J. G. Kelly.

McCoy was killed at Hudson, Ont., January 12, 1938, when a Stinson airplane he was flying collapsed in mid-air. Witnesses testified the right wing separated from the machine.

Three airplane experts testified a metal wing strut which had come apart was welded satisfactorily. Mr. Justice Kelly said he found no negligence on the part of the corporation.

R.C.M.P. Building Burned

KENTVILLE, N.S. (CP)—Four persons escaped injury in a fire that destroyed the living quarters and office of the Kentville detachment of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police early today. Damage is estimated at $6,500.

Heavy Grain Movement

FORT WILLIAM (CP)—Entry into the lakehead grain shipping trade of a large fleet of United States ore-carriers has resulted in the heaviest grain rush in many years from the port of Fort William-Port Arthur.

More than 14,500,000 bushels of grain were taken from terminals Saturday, Sunday and Monday and another 20 grain-laden vessels cleared port today.

Grainmen do not expect the rush to continue after November 30 when the first increase in marine insurance rates goes into effect.

Okanagan Excursion

Next bargain trip to be operated by Canadian National Railways from Victoria, Nanaimo, Vancouver and New Westminster to Okanagan Valley points as far south as Penticton, and main line points between Port Mann and Kamloops, including Tranquille, is scheduled to leave Vancouver at 7.15 p.m., December 8. Return limit calls for excursionists to leave destinations on the evening of December 11, arriving back in Vancouver early Tuesday.

Slump Succeeds Rally

NEW YORK (AP)—Late selling hit the stock market today and leaders dropped fractions to 3 points or more.

The dip, which began in a lazy way about 1 o'clock, was accentuated in the last quarter of an hour of trading.

It followed a morning rally in which some issues pushed ahead as much as 2 points. Chrysler, which got up that far, was about unchanged at the finish.

Transfers approximated 700,000 shares.

Settlement of the long and costly labor dispute in the Chrysler plants gave the original impetus to the mild boost which lasted throughout the forenoon. Then prices began to give way and little support was forthcoming.

The day's news contained a long list of higher or extra dividend declarations, the industrial activity rate held well and it appeared there was every reason for a better market.

Narrow to lower at the finish were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Boeing, Santa Fe, Westinghouse Electric, Du Pont, Union Carbide, Johns-Manville, U.S. Gypsum, American Telephone, Owens-Illinois, Goodrich and Air Reduction.

More resistant were American Smelting, Philip Morris and Chesapeake and Ohio.

Newmont Mining rose a bit in the curb, as did Mead Johnson, Nehi Corporation and Sherwin Williams.

Dow Jones averages closed today as follows:
30 industrials 146.86, off 1.45
20 rails 32.28, off .57
15 utilities 25.08, off .27
40 bonds 89.58, off .23
Total sales: $780,000.

Preston's New High

TORONTO (CP)—Selective action in industrials and golds gave Toronto stock market a firm to strong appearance at intervals today, but profit taking trimmed the gains.

Preston Gold advanced to a new high price at 2.28 and closed around 2.24 for a net gain of 4. Buffalo-Ankerite, Sylvanite, Perron, Kerr-Addison and Pamour firmed narrowly.

Naybob advanced to 20½. The close was up slightly for Malartic Gold Fields, Oro Plata and Paymaster. The shares of Stadacona were barred from trading today pending an investigation into the company's affairs. It closed yesterday at 16.

London Market

LONDON (AP)—The stock market quietly moved lower today after a firm opening. British government bonds shaded lower and most foreign loans retreated. Kaffirs and coppers attracted a small following, but oils and domestic rails were generally depressed. Industrials shifted uncertainly.

Closing, in sterling: Babcock & Wilcox 40s 6d. Celanese Corporation of America £6¼, Central Mining £12¼, Consolidated Goldfields 41s 3d. East Geduld £10½, H.B.C. 23s 9d. Metal Box 76s 3d. Mining Trust 1s 9d, Springs 24s 4½d.

Bonds: British 2½% Consols £68¼, British 3½% War Loan £92½, British Funding 4s 1960-90 £105⅝.

Calgary Livestock

CALGARY (CP)—Receipts to noon: Cattle 400, calves 48, hogs 274, sheep nil.

Good to choice butcher steers 6.00 to 6.50; common to medium 5.00 to 5.75; good light heifers 5.50 to 6.00; common to medium 4.75 to 5.25; good cows 4.00 to 4.35; calves ranged from 4.50 to 6.25; common to medium stocker steers 4.50 to 5.25. Good lambs yesterday 8.25.

Alexander's Small Army Routed Persians

With his clear blue eyes, his curly, golden hair and his well-shaped features, Alexander was a man who would have seemed handsome whatever place he held in the world.

Partly because of his handsome face, but more because of his conquests, the story spread that Alexander was a god. It seems there were many persons who really came to this belief.

Portrait of Alexander

Gathering an army from his own country, Macedonia, and from Greece, the king marched into lands which now make up Turkey but which at that time were parts of the Persian empire.

In one of the early battles, a Persian cut away part of Alexander's helmet with a sword, and a spear cut through the armor covering his right shoulder. The battle was won, however, and the shoulder wound was healed before long.

Before fighting that battle, the king and his men had "crossed the Hellespont." In other words, they had passed over a narrow channel dividing Europe from Asia Minor. Today people speak of the channel as "the Dardanelles."

Persia lost the battle, but Darius, the Persian king, was not ready to give up his country. Hoping to crush the invaders, he formed one of the largest armies which ever had been known. We are told it numbered 1,000,000 men.

A conflict, known as the Battle of Arbela, took place on a plain near the Tigris river. Alexander had only 47,000 soldiers to face the mighty Persian host.

Numbers do not always decide a battle. The skill of a general may do a great deal to bring victory to a small army fighting a larger one.

Alexander was the skilful general needed in this case. At the age of 25, he was a master in the so-called "art" of war. He knew where best to place his foot-soldiers with their long pikes, where best to send his 7,000 cavalry charging with their spears.

The Persians had 200 chariots and these were driven toward the enemy. Each chariot had a long blade at either side, a blade which might cut down men as a scythe cuts tall grass. Alexander gave orders to his soldiers to seize the bridles of the advancing horses, and this was done. The armed chariots did little damage.

Alexander's men won the Battle of Arbela and the Persians were put to flight.

HOROSCOPE

Thursday, November 30

Conflicting planetary aspects are active today and may confuse the sensitive. Mars is in an aspect that may mean military engagements, but the stars encourage whatever is progressive or constructive. Aviation comes under threatening portents that later change to helpful promise.

This is an encouraging sign for wise household administration. The young should be more cooperative and less inclined to make demands. While there is not much promise of romance, there is good luck indicated for new friendships with persons of the opposite sex. Gossip and mention of world horrors should be avoided.

The building of airplanes and warships will stimulate business in the United States at the end of the year but 1940 will bring a reaction. Financial wizards will be in demand as budgets are prepared for public expenditures. Relief economies will not be successful and will be given up by the wise. Crime will increase greatly after the holidays.

Taxes will cause anxiety. Painless methods will be advocated but the regular way of obtaining funds for public expenditures will be maintained. Reformers will indulge in crack-brained schemes. Revolt against authority may be widespread as people of all ages become rebellious.

Mussolini will come to the fore in the world news. He will be able to inspire loyalty in Italy, but not in Germany, where Hitler will engage in unsuccessful secret machinations. There will be disagreements and even treachery in the dictators' relations to one another.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of more than average good fortune. Women will be lucky in their dealings with strangers.

Children born on this day probably will be extremely intuitive and able to guide themselves wisely through difficult periods. These subjects of Sagittarius have unusual personality and talents.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

ANSWER: India, from which the gypsies entered Europe in the 14th or 15th century.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have a girl friend who has a harelip and a cleft palate, but in spite of these she is very pretty and talks plainly. She is very intelligent and has a marvelous personality. She is a wonderful sport and can also cook and keep house. A friend of mine is very much in love with her. Is her affliction hereditary? What do you think about marriage to such a girl?

A FRIEND.

Answer: Certainly her affliction is not hereditary, and if she has the courage and determination to make so much of herself in spite of her trouble, I would say she would make a grand wife for any man.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a girl of 17 and most unhappy because my mother is going insane. She used to be so jolly and pleasant, but now she makes our home a hell on earth. She has delusions of persecution and thinks that I am trying to wean my little brother away from her and that my father and I are in league against her. She is always miserable, quarrelsome and irritable, and when crossed flies into a terrible temper. What can we do about it?

RUTH.

Answer: The best thing is to send her to some institution where mental cases are treated. At home everything irritates her and nobody can control her, but in an institution all domestic friction will be removed and trained nurses will know how to soothe and comfort her. I have known personally a number of women who have been cured by such expert treatment.

DOROTHY DIX.
